section 10 of the Principal Act.

3. Section 10 of the Principal Act is amended in the following manner -

(a) by substituting for subsection (1) the following subsection -

“(1) On any change of possession of a motor vehicle otherwise than by death –

- (a) the registered owner and the person into whose possession the vehicle has passed shall within seven days after such change of possession apply in writing signed by both of them to the licensing officer giving the name and address of the person into whose

Cap. 81:01

- possession the vehicle has passed and the date of change of possession and such application shall be accompanied by the certificate of registration, the prescribed fee and a certificate of the Commissioner of Inland Revenue stating that the registered owner has in accordance with the Income Tax Act delivered to the Commissioner of Inland Revenue all his returns, including the return for the preceding year of income and has paid all taxes due and payable to the Commissioner by him or has made arrangements to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for the payment of all such taxes that are due and payable;
- (b) if the licensing officer is satisfied that the registration is not prohibited by the Act and the vehicle is brought before the licensing officer, the licensing officer shall thereupon, in the presence of the registered owner and the person into whose possession the motor vehicle has passed, enter in the register and the certificate of registration the name and address of the person into whose possession the vehicle has passed and the date on which the entry is made and from such date the person into whose possession the vehicle has passed shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be the registered owner of the motor vehicle;
- (c) where a person referred to in paragraph (a) is a company, a letter of authorisation signed by a director of the company authorising a representative to act on behalf of the company shall be produced to the licensing officer;
- (d) where a person referred to in paragraph (a) is unable to be present due to illness or disability, the licensing officer, upon the payment of the prescribed fee by or on behalf of the ill or disabled person, shall visit the person and inspect the motor vehicle for the purpose of effecting the transfer of registration;
- (e) where a person referred to in paragraph (a) is out of the country, the licensing officer may effect the transfer of registration if the other person produces a sworn affidavit to the effect that that other person is out of the country”;

- (b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (3), the following subsections –

“(4) Notwithstanding the registration is not effected, on any change of possession of a motor vehicle by virtue of a hiring agreement, a hire purchase agreement or a sales agreement, the person in possession of the motor vehicle by virtue of such agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of any such agreement, shall be vested with the rights, powers and liabilities as if registered as the owner of the motor vehicle for the purposes of this Act.

(5) Where the application for transfer of registration of a motor vehicle has not been made within seven days after the change of possession of the vehicle under subsection (1) (a), the registered owner and the person into whose possession the motor vehicle has passed each commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment three months.’

Insertion of new sections 33A, 33B, 33C, 33D, 33E, 33F, 33G and 33H in the Principal Act.

4. The Principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 33, the following sections –

“Assignment of demerit points.

Third Schedule.

Third Schedule.

33A. (1) Where any person is convicted of an offence specified in the Third Schedule, the court shall, in addition to any punishment for that offence, order –

- (a) that the demerit points specified in the Third Schedule in relation to that offence be recorded against the driver’s licence of that person; and
- (b) that, if sufficient demerit points are recorded, the person be disqualified for a period specified in section 33B.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the punishment imposed by the court includes an order disqualifying that person from holding or obtaining a driver’s licence.

(3) Where a person appeals against a conviction for an offence relating to subsection (1), no demerit points shall be recorded in respect of that conviction unless the conviction is confirmed on appeal.

- Third Schedule.
- (4) Where a person is convicted of an offence specified in the Third Schedule, the clerk of the court shall inform the Licensing Authority of the conviction –
- (a) as soon after the conviction is confirmed on appeal, if an appeal is brought against the conviction; or
 - (b) as soon as may be after the expiration of the ordinary time for bringing an appeal, if an appeal is not brought against the conviction.
- Cap. 10:02.
- (5) Where a person is served with a notice under section 8 of the Summary Jurisdiction (Procedure) Act in respect of an offence under this Act and pays the penalty in accordance with that section -
- Third Schedule.
- (a) the number of demerit points specified in the Third Schedule in respect of that offence shall be recorded against any licence held by that person; and
 - (b) the officer in charge of the Police Station shall record in respect of that person -
 - (i) details of the offence committed;
 - (ii) the date on which the penalty was paid;
 - (iii) the number of demerit points specified in the Third Schedule in relation to that offence; and
 - (iv) as of that date, the total number of demerit points recorded against the licence of that person,and thereafter shall forward the information recorded to the Licensing Authority.
- Third Schedule.
- (6) Where a person -
- (a) is convicted of two or more offences specified in the Third Schedule occurring on a single occasion; or
 - (b) has paid a penalty under section 8 (2) of the Summary Jurisdiction (Procedure) Act, in respect of two or more offences occurring on a single occasion,
- Cap. 10:02

the greatest number of demerit points in respect of one offence only shall be recorded against the driver's licence of that person and where offences carry equal demerit points, demerit points for one offence only shall be recorded.

Accumulation of demerit points.

33B. Where the demerit points accumulated by a person amounts to –

- (a) ten or more but less than sixteen, the period of disqualification, from holding or obtaining a driver's licence shall be six months;
- (b) twelve or more over a twelve month period, the period of disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence shall be one year;
- (c) sixteen or more, the period of disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence shall be one year.

Notification.

33C. (1) Where a total number of six or more but less than ten demerit points has accumulated in the record of any person, the Licensing Authority shall cause a notice in writing to be sent to that person -

- (a) informing the person of the number of demerit points accumulated; and
- (b) specifying that he may or shall be disqualified if any more demerit points of ten or more are recorded against his licence.

(2) The Licensing Authority shall, before disqualifying a person for a period specified in section 33B, give that person notice in writing of its intention to do so, specifying a date not less than fourteen days after the date of the notice, upon which such disqualification shall be made and calling upon the person to show cause to the Licensing Authority why he should not be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

(3) If the Licensing Authority decides to disqualify a person for a period specified in section 33B, the Licensing Authority shall forthwith in writing notify the person of the disqualification.

Expunction of demerit points after three years

33D. Where demerit points have been recorded against the driver's licence of a person under this Act, and for a period of three years after the date of the latest recording of such demerit points no further demerit points are recorded against the licence, then upon the expiration of that period, the demerit points shall be expunged from the records:

Provided that in calculating the period of three years, no account shall be taken of any period of disqualification pursuant to section 33A (2) in respect of the driver's licence of that person.

Appeal to the High Court.

33E. A person who has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence under the demerit points system may within fourteen days of the receipt of the notice referred to in section 33C, appeal to the High Court against that decision.

Surrender of driver's licence.

33F. (1) A person who has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence under the demerit points system shall surrender to the Licensing Authority his driver's licence –

- (a) within fourteen days of the notice referred to in section 33C (3), if no appeal is made to the High Court; or
- (b) within seven days of a decision of the Licensing Authority being confirmed, if an appeal is made to the High Court.

(2) The Licensing Authority shall return the driver's licence to the holder thereof and the points recorded against him shall be cancelled after the expiration of the period referred to in 33B.

Offences.

33G. A person who applies for or obtains a driver's licence or drives a motor vehicle while he is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence under the demerit points system is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a period of twelve months together with the disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a further period of six months.
