

No. 7 of 1934.

Regulations.

(4) Members of the Special Reserve shall not be regarded as workmen for the purposes of the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance or any amending Ordinance.

123.O. (1) The Commissioner may, with the approval of the Governor in Council make Regulations providing for the discipline of members of the Special Reserve when called out for service and generally for all the purposes of this Part of this Ordinance.

(2) There may be annexed to any regulation for the breach thereof —

(a) in the case of an officer, suspension from pay and duty, pending the decision of the Governor; and

(b) in the case of non-commissioned officer or constable, suspension without pay for any period not exceeding twenty-eight days, or a fine not exceeding ten days' pay, or confinement to barracks for a period not exceeding seven days.

I assent.

C. C. WOOLLEY,

Governor.
