

I assent,

Officer Administering the Government.

17th June, 1951.

BRITISH GUIANA.

ORDINANCE No. 28 OF 1951.

AN ORDINANCE further to amend the Constabulary Ordinance with respect to the pensions payable to certain non-commissioned Officers and Constables.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of British Guiana with A.D. 1951. the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Constabulary Short title.
(Amendment) Ordinance, 1951, and shall be construed and read as one with the Constabulary Ordinance, hereinafter referred Cap. 30.
to as the Principal Ordinance, and any Ordinance amending the same.

New section 85C inserted in the Principal Ordinance. No. 2 of 1938.

2. The Principal Ordinance, as amended from time to time, is hereby further amended by the insertion therein after section 85B, as enacted by section three of the Constabulary (Amendment) Ordinance, 1938, of the following heading and section —

“Provisions in force since the first day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Pensions, etc., of certain members of the force. No. 20 of 1933. No. 39 of 1944.

85. C. (1) The provisions of the Pensions Ordinance, 1933, and of the Pensions (Amendment) Ordinance, 1944, shall, in so far as they are applicable, apply —

- (a) to every non-commissioned officer and to every constable who is enrolled after the commencement of this section; and
- (b) to every non-commissioned officer or constable who was a member of the force at the commencement of this section and who intimates in writing to the Commissioner of Police not later than the thirty-first day of August, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, that he desires that the provisions of this section shall apply to him:

Provided that —

- (a) service qualifying for pension may commence at the age of twenty years; and
- (b) the Commissioner may, with the approval of the Governor, require any non-commissioned officer or constable to retire from the force on attaining the age of fifty years.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the expression “officer” occurring in the Pensions Ordinance, 1933, shall include non-commissioned officers and constables, and the expression “service” and cognate expressions shall be deemed to include service by such non-commissioned officers and constables in the force.”

Commencement.

3. This Ordinance shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Passed by the Legislative Council this 31st day of May, 1951.

J. J. Spang
Clerk of the Legislative Council

(C. 101|7|1|4).