Governor.

24th December, 1951.

BRITISH GUIANA

ORDINANCE No. 48 of 1951.

AN ORDINANCE further to amend the Tax Ordinance, 1939.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

A.D. 1951.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Tax (Amendment No. 4) Ordinance, 1951, and shall be construed and read as one with the Tax Ordinance, 1939, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

Short title.

No. 43 of 1939.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 38 of the Principal Ordinance.

2. Section thirty-eight of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor —

“Liquor Store Licence

38. Every person who —

(a) in the city of Georgetown or the town of New Amsterdam or within one mile of the boundaries of such city or town or in such other areas as may be permitted under the provisions of any Ordinance for the time being in force regulating the storage, sale and disposal of spirituous liquors —

(i) stores in bulk, mixes and blends spirituous liquor in a liquor store and sells or delivers therefrom spirituous liquor, wine or malt liquor, shall take out an annual licence for so doing, and shall pay for the same the sum of four hundred dollars;

(ii) keeps and sells or delivers from a liquor store spirituous liquor, wine or malt liquor, but does not store in bulk, mix or blend such spirituous liquor, shall take out an annual licence for so doing, and shall pay for the same the sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars;

(b) imports and sells spirits in bond in the city of Georgetown or the town of New Amsterdam shall take out an annual licence for so doing and shall pay for the same the sum of two hundred dollars:

Provided that the holder of a liquor store licence issued under paragraph (a) of this section shall not be required to take out a further licence to import and sell spirits in bond.”

3. This Ordinance shall come into force on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

Commencement.

Passed by the Legislative Council this 21st day of December, 1951.

J. C. Spence
Clerk of the Legislative Council.
