- (d) he is under sentence of imprisonment for any term or is under such a sentence of imprisonment the execution of which has been suspended; or
- (e) being an official member his appointment is revoked by the Minister; or
- (f) having been appointed to his office on the recommendation or nomination of a District Association, or the Association or the Development Corporation, he is removed from office by the Minister at the request of the body which recommended or nominated him.

Meetings.

6. (1) Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business, and such meetings shall be held at such places and times and on such days as the Committee may determine.

(2) The Chairman of the Committee may at any time convene a meeting of the Committee.

(3) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Committee. In the absence of the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman from any meeting, the members present may elect one of their numbers to be the Chairman of the meeting.

(4) The Committee shall act by resolutions passed at meetings at which a quorum is present by a majority of votes of the members present and voting at the meeting:

Provided that no resolution shall be of any force or effect unless the following members vote in favour of the resolution —

- (a) at least two members appointed under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section 3 of this Ordinance;
- (b) at least one member appointed under paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 3 of this Ordinance; and
- (c) at least one member appointed under paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of section 3 of this Ordinance.

(5) The Chairman at any meeting shall have an original and a casting vote.

(6) The quorum for meetings of the Committee shall be five members.

(7) Subject to the provisions of subsections (4) and (6) of this section, the Committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy among the members thereof.

(8) A member shall be at liberty to vote on, and to be present at any meeting which is considering any matter notwithstanding that he may have a financial or other interest in such matter, whether directly or indirectly.

(9) The Committee may co-opt any one or more persons to attend any particular meeting of the Committee at which it is dealing with a particular matter, for the purpose of assisting or advising the Committee, but no such co-opted person shall have any right to vote.

(10) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Committee shall have power to regulate its own proceedings.

7. The Committee shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, appoint and employ a secretary and such officers and servants as it deems necessary for the proper carrying out of its functions.

Appointment of officers and servants.

8. (1) The Minister may, by order, divide British Guiana into districts and may establish a District Association for each such district.

Creation of districts and constitutions of District Associations.

(2) The Minister may, by regulations, prescribe the constitution of a District Association.

(3) A District Association may make recommendations and representations to the Committee on behalf of farmers on matters relating to cane farming.

9. The Committee shall cause to be kept a register of farmers for each district and of all contracts. Register of farmers and contracts.

10. Any expense incurred by the Minister or the Committee for the purpose of this Ordinance shall be defrayed by the Minister out of moneys provided by the Legislature. Expenses of the Committee.

11. (1) The Committee may, with the approval of the Minister, make rules providing for all or any of the following matters — Rules.

- (a) the general conditions which shall be deemed to be incorporated in every contract;
- (b) the registration of farmers;
- (c) the registration of contracts; and
- (d) the records to be kept by farmers and the furnishing of reports and returns by them to the Committee.

(2) The general conditions prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section may be amended, altered or varied by rules made under this section:

Provided that no amendment, alteration or variation of the conditions shall be of any force or effect to the extent that it may prejudice any security given by a farmer to any person prior to such amendment, alteration or variation, or the rights of any person under a contract made prior to and subsisting at the time of such amendment, alteration, or variation, unless that person has consented thereto in writing.

(3) Rules made for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section shall be laid before the House of Assembly within fourteen days after they are made, and if the House of Assembly, within a period of thirty days beginning with the day on which the rules are laid before it, resolves that the rules be annulled, they shall be thereby annulled, and the rules so annulled shall thenceforth become void and of no effect but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the rules or to the making of new rules.

(4) In reckoning any period of days for the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, no account shall be taken of any time during which the Legislature is dissolved or prorogued or during which the House of Assembly is adjourned for more than seven days.

Passed by the House of Assembly on the 19th of October, 1965.

E. V. VIAPREE,
Clerk of the Legislature.
