

I assent.
Edward Denham

Governor.

24th November, 1933.

BRITISH GUIANA.

ORDINANCE NO. 32 OF 1933.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Georgetown Sewerage and Water Ordinance, Chapter 96, by giving the Council authority to exempt from rating buildings and the lands occupied therewith used as schools or for charitable purposes. A.D. 1933.

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Georgetown Sewerage and Water Ordinance, 1933, and shall be construed with the Georgetown Sewerage and Water Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance, and any Ordinance amending the same. Short Title.
Cap. 96.

Premises used as schools for elementary education or for charitable purposes not liable for rate.

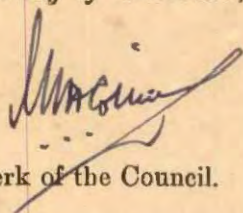

2. Any rate which the Council is authorised to raise levy and collect under section twenty-two of the Principal Ordinance shall not be levied in respect of—

- (1) any building and the land therewith which are used by the owner thereof solely as a school for elementary education with the approval of the Council ;
- (2) any building and the land therewith which are used by the owner thereof solely for the charitable purpose of housing poor persons who are themselves maintained by charity : provided that no benefit or advantage whatsoever accrues to the owner in respect of such user or housing.

Commencement.

3. This Ordinance shall take effect as on and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-one in respect of all buildings and lands which are granted exemption under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section two, and on and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-four in respect of all buildings and lands which are granted exemption under sub-section (2) of section two.

Passed by the Legislative Council this 16th day of November, 1933.

Clerk of the Council.
