(Bill 13/1962 (S) ).
(M.F. L.M. 58/16/2/89).

OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill contains provisions which render unnecessary the concurrence of the Secretary of State in dispositions of interests in land under the provisions of the Principal Ordinance and to make changes in terminology to meet the provisions of the Constitution of British Guiana. There is no longer any necessity for a Civil List Ordinance and the amendment of section 90 of the Principal Ordinance meets the changed circumstances created by the new Constitution whereby certain salaries are charged upon the general revenues of the country.
