ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker made the following announcements:

(1) Parliamentary Procedure and Practices

“Hon. Members, I should offer you a word of regret at our late start. A matter of very major importance came to my attention just as I was about to appear before you in the Chamber and that required my immediate attention Hon. Members. One of the universal and best-known rules of parliamentary practice, one with which every Member of Parliament is presumed to be familiar is that the conduct of the Speaker cannot be criticized, except by way of substantive motion. I refer to Erskine May Parliamentary Practice, 24th Edition, page 61 which reads as follows:

“Reflections upon the character or actions of the Speaker may be punished as breaches of Privilege. His actions cannot be criticized incidentally in debate or upon any form of proceeding except a substantive motion. His authority in the Chair is fortified by many special powers which are referred to below. Confidence in the impartiality of the Speaker is an indispensable condition of the successful working of procedure, and many conventions exist which have as their object...”

Hon Members, I would request you to observe the Standing Order which states that, when the Speaker is addressing the House, there should be no other voice heard at the time.

Confidence in the impartiality of the Speaker is an indispensable condition of the successful working of procedure, and many conventions exist which have as their object not only to ensure the impartiality of the Speaker but also to ensure that his impartiality is generally recognized. The House of Commons Procedure and Practice, the Canadian Practice, 2nd Edition pages 313 and 314 states:

“Reflections on the character or actions of the Speaker – an allegation of bias, for example – could be taken by the House as breaches of privilege and can be punished accordingly.”

Just before we were to begin this afternoon’s proceedings my attention was drawn to today’s publication of the Stabroek News newspapers, pages 6 and 7 to a letter under the hand of Hon. Member, Mr. Harry Gill. The letter, on my first reading, appears to make imputations against the Speaker in his office and in so far as the name of the Speaker is coupled in the letter against the Speaker in his person.

If the Hon. Member Mr. Gill was dissatisfied with the rulings or decisions of the Speaker he could have taken a course of action provided for in the Standing Orders to which all Members in this House have submitted themselves when they became Members of this House. Instead he has proceeded on a course of action which is totally impermissible under the Standing Orders. His conduct is an affront to the Office of the Speaker, the person of the Speaker and to the dignity of this House.

This is the second occasion in two years that such a disregard for the rules of this House has been displayed by Hon. Members and it may be that the silence of this House on the previous occasions has emboldened the Hon. Member Mr. Gill. Thank you”.

(2) Leave:

Honourable Members, leave has been granted to Mr. Dharamkumar Seeraj, Ms. Pauline Campbell-Sukhai and Ms. Indranie Chandarpal for today's Sitting.

MOTION OF PRIVILEGE

Member, Mr. Harry Gill who made imputations against the Speaker on a ruling made in the National Assembly on 27th July, 2018. The Speaker stated that, after careful consideration of the request, he had found that a prima facie case had been made out against the Honourable Member and, thereafter, referred the matter to the Committee of Privileges.
