

BRITISH GUIANA

ORDER

Made Under

THE EMERGENCY POWERS REGULATIONS, 1963.

(No. 7 of 1963)

WHEREAS I am satisfied that the holding of public processions other than funeral processions or processions of Her Majesty's forces or of the British Guiana Volunteer Force or of the Police Force on any highway, public park or garden, sea beach, and on any public bridge, landing-place, road, street, land, footway, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not, or in any open space to which, for the time being, the public have or are permitted to have access, or on or along or within the immediate vicinity of any public road, within the part of the Colony specified in the schedule hereto would be likely to cause a disturbance of public order or to promote disaffection:

NOW THEREFORE by virtue of the powers vested in me by regulation 20 of the Emergency Powers Regulations, 1963, in accordance with article 22 of the Constitution of British Guiana, and by virtue and in exercise of all powers enabling me in that behalf I do hereby prohibit the holding of any such procession unless the Commissioner of Police shall have given his permission in writing to the holding thereof.

SCHEDULE
