ANNEX III

RULES OF ORIGIN

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- ARTICLE 1 The determination of "origin" of the goods or products and the corresponding certification and verification procedures will be applied as established in this Annex.
- ARTICLE 2 The Rules of Origin in this Annex are based on the general principle of substantial transformation characterised by the change of Customs classification heading. To that end, the Parties will utilise the Nomenclature of the Harmonised Commodity Description and Coding System, including the headings, subheadings and the corresponding numerical codes, the notes to the sections, chapters and subheadings, as well as the general rules of interpretation.

CHAPTER II

DETERMINATION OF ORIGIN

ARTICLE 3 DEFINITIONS.

For the purposes of this Annex, the following definitions shall apply:

Inputs means raw materials, intermediate goods and parts or components utilised in production.

Goods or products means inputs or finished articles.

Production means planting, extraction, harvesting, fishing, hunting, manufacturing, processing or assembly of goods or products.

- b) Goods produced in the territories of the Parties which are made solely from originating goods.
- c) Goods produced in the territories of the Parties which utilise non-originating inputs will meet the Rules of Origin criteria established in this Article, as follows:
- i) Goods resulting from a substantial transformation process carried out in the territories of the Parties which process confers on them a new individuality characterised by their being classified in a Customs classification heading of Nomenclature of the Harmonised Commodity Description and Coding System, which is different from those in which all the non-originating inputs used in the process are classified; or
 - ii) Goods, other than goods resulting from an assembly process, in which the CIF value of the non-originating inputs utilised does not exceed 50% of the FOB price of the goods produced or the regional content is not less than 50% of the FOB price of the goods produced.
 - iii) Goods resulting from an assembly process in which the CIF value of non-originating inputs utilised does not exceed 50% of the FOB price of the goods produced or the regional content is not less than 50% of the FOB price of the goods produced.
- d) Goods produced in the territories of the Parties which incorporate inputs from third countries, and meet the specific origin requirement determined by the Joint Council.

- a) operations to ensure the preservation of goods or products during transportation or storage, such as ventilation, refrigeration, freezing, addition of preservatives or salt, removal of damaged parts and the like;
- b) operations such as dust removal, washing or cleaning, sifting, peeling, shelling, winnowing, maceration, drying, sorting, classification, grading, selection, crushing, filtering, diluting in water, painting or cutting-up;
- c) the simple formation of sets of goods;
- d) the packing, placing in containers or repackaging;
- e) the dividing up or assembly of packages;
- f) the affixing of brands, labels, or other similar distinctive signs;
- g) the simple mixture of materials, if the characteristics of the product obtained are not essentially different from the characteristics of the materials which have been mixed;
- h) the slaughter of animals;
- i) the simple addition of oil;
- j) the carrying out of two or more of the operations at (a) to (i) above.

ARTICLE 8

In order for the goods or products to benefit from the preferential treatment, the same must be directly delivered from the exporting country to the importing country.

- a declaration by the exporter or the final producer that the origin requirements prescribed in this Annex have been fulfilled;
- a certificate by the authorised body of the exporting country that the declaration by the exporter or the final producer, as the case may be, is accurate.

Where the exporter is not the final producer of the goods or products, the former shall present the declaration of origin to the authorised body.

The competent authority in the exporting country shall carry out such control as is necessary to permit the certification provided for in this Article and shall confirm all the data set out in the Certificate of Origin.

The Certificate of Origin shall have affixed the signature of an official notified by the authorised body of the exporting country pursuant to Article 11.

The date of the Certificate of Origin may not precede that of the relevant commercial invoice.

The Certificate of Origin shall be valid for a period of 180 days from the date of issue.

ARTICLE 10

Each Party shall require the exporter or final producer who completes and signs a Certificate of Origin to keep all the records and documents pertaining to the origin of the goods or products for a minimum of three years from the date of the certificate and to produce these records and documents as requested by the competent authority, in accordance with national legislation.

- a) there are grounds for doubt regarding the authenticity of the document
- b) there are grounds for doubt with regard to the accuracy of the data contained therein;
- c) there are grounds for doubt that the provisions of this Annex have been met;
- d) the Certificate of Origin is incomplete;
- e) random checks are considered necessary.

The competent authority of the exporting country shall supply the information requested within forty-five (45) days.

ARTICLE 13

In no case shall the Customs authorities of the Parties interrupt an import procedure of the products covered by the Certificates of Origin mentioned in the preceding Articles. However, the Customs authorities of the importing Party, in addition to requesting the appropriate additional information from the competent authorities of the exporting Party, shall adopt the actions they deem necessary to safeguard the fiscal interests.

CHAPTER VI

PENALTIES

ARTICLE 14

Each Party shall maintain legislation which provides for penalties against those who furnish or cause to be furnished any document which is untrue in a material particular in support of a claim in the other Party that goods or products should be accepted as eligible for preferential treatment.
