

Repealed by Ord. 20 of 1930

CHAPTER 211.

ALIENS.

[No. I of 1886.]

[12th May, 1886.]

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Aliens Ordinance. Short title.

2. Where the Governor has reason to believe, from information given in writing by anyone subscribing his name thereto, that, for the preservation of the peace and good order of the colony, it is expedient to remove therefrom any alien who is, or hereafter may be, within the colony, the Governor may, by order under his hand to be published in the Gazette, direct that that alien shall depart from the colony within a time limited in the order. Order that alien do depart the colony.

- 3.—(1) If the alien knowingly and wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with the order, or is found within the colony after its publication and after the expiration of the time limited therein, the Inspector General of Police may cause the alien to be arrested and committed to prison until he is taken in charge for the purpose of being sent out of the colony under the authority given by this Ordinance. Arrest of aliens not complying with order.

(2) The Chief Justice or a judge of the Supreme Court, if he sees sufficient cause, may admit the alien to bail, on sufficient security being given for his appearance to answer the matters alleged against him.

4. Every alien who knowingly and wilfully refuses or neglects to pay due obedience to an order aforesaid of the Governor shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and, on conviction thereof before the Supreme Court, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month for a first offence and not exceeding twelve months for the second or any subsequent offence. Non-compliance by alien with order.

5. Where an alien who has been directed to depart the colony by any order of the Governor under this Ordinance is found within the colony after the expiration of the time Misdemeanour. Deportation of alien.

limited in the order, the Governor, whether or not the alien has been arrested or committed for refusal or neglect to obey the order or convicted of that refusal or neglect, and either before or after the alien has suffered the punishment inflicted for the same, may by warrant under his hand and seal, give the alien in charge to any person to whom he may think proper to direct the warrant, in order that the alien may be conveyed out of the colony; and the alien, subject to the other provisions of this Ordinance, shall be so conveyed accordingly.

excuse
alleged for delay in complying with order.

6.—(1) Where the alien (not having been convicted as aforesaid) alleges any excuse for not complying with the order or any reason why it should not be enforced or why further time should be allowed to him, he may submit the same to the Governor, and where the alien is in custody under any warrant of the Governor under this Ordinance, the person having the custody of the alien, on its being signified to him that that excuse or reason is alleged by the alien, shall forthwith make known the same to the Governor.

(2) Where the Governor is informed that that excuse or reason is alleged by the alien, the Governor shall suspend the execution of the warrant until the matter can be investigated and determined by him.

(3) The alien, if in custody under a warrant aforesaid shall remain in custody, and, if not in custody, may be given in charge by the warrant, and shall remain in custody until the matter is determined.

Alien not deported
within one month after commitment.

7. Where an alien who is committed to prison until he is taken in charge for the purpose of being sent out of the colony is not sent out of the colony within one month after the commitment, on application by or on behalf of the person so committed, and on proof that notice of the intention to make that application has been given to the Attorney General, the Chief Justice or any judge of the Supreme Court may, according to his discretion, order the person so committed to be continued in or discharged out of custody.

Saving as to
officers.

8. Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect any foreign consul or vice-consul.
