

CHAPTER 241.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS (GUIANA CONFERENCE).

[No. XLII of 1927.]

[29th October, 1927.]

- Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Seventh Day Adventists (Guiana Conference) Ordinance.
- Interpretation. 2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,— “ the Corporation ” means the General Conference Corporation of Seventh Day Adventists of the district of Columbia, in the United States of America;
 “ the Conference ” means the Guiana Conference of Seventh Day Adventists.
- Corporation to be deemed a body corporate. 3. The President, Secretary, and Treasurer for the time being of the Corporation shall be deemed to be in the colony a body corporate, and shall be known and described as the Guiana Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, and by that name shall have full power to hold or acquire by purchase, transfer, donation, exchange, devise, bequest, grant, gift, conveyance, transport, or otherwise, any movable or immovable property in the colony or any estate or interest therein, and may sue and be sued in all courts of justice and before all judges or magistrates of the colony.
- Power to dispose of property. 4. The Conference shall be entitled to sell, transport, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of and deal with, all property both movable and immovable for the time being vested in or acquired by the Conference.
- Change in office-bearers of Corporation not to affect property or interest in the colony. 5. No change of the persons holding the office of president, secretary, or treasurer of the Corporation shall affect any movable or immovable property or any estate or interest therein vested in the Conference, but that property and estate and interest therein shall continue to vest in the Conference in the same way and to the same extent as before.

6. The President, Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the Conference, together or separately, shall have power as a corporate body to appoint an attorney or attorneys to represent them in the colony for the purposes of this Ordinance for the time and with the powers stated in the power of attorney. Power to appoint attorney or attorneys.

7. F. M. Wilcox, A. G. Daniels, and J. L. Shaw, of Takoma Park, in the district of Columbia, shall be deemed to be the present president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, of the Corporation. Present office-bearers of the Corporation.

8. When a power of attorney, duly executed in the United States of America by the president, secretary, and treasurer for the time being of the Corporation, or one of those officers, has been recorded in the deeds registry in the colony, the person or persons named in that power shall be deemed to be the duly authorised representative or representatives in the colony of the Corporation, and shall have the right to exercise in relation to the property and affairs of the Corporation all the powers (but those only) contained therein as fully and as effectually as if those powers were exercised personally by the president, secretary, and treasurer as a corporate body. Authorised representatives.

9. In all legal proceedings in the colony against the Conference, service of process upon the representative or representatives aforesaid, or on the pastor for the time being appointed by the Corporation as head of the Conference carried on in the colony, or, if there is not that representative or pastor, by affixing the process on a conspicuous part of any of the buildings or churches of the Conference situate in the city of Georgetown, shall be good and sufficient service. Proceedings by or against the Conference.

10. All transports, mortgages, cancellation of mortgages, leases, transfers, and other documents necessary to give effect to the several matters, acts and things or any of them mentioned and specified in sections three and four hereof, requiring to be formally executed by or on behalf of Signature by authorised representatives to be deemed formal execution.

the Conference, shall be deemed sufficiently executed if signed by the duly authorised representative or representatives aforesaid if the power of attorney whereunder he or they purport to act authorises the execution of the document or the performance or doing of the matter, act, or thing.

Saving the rights of His Majesty.

11. Nothing in this Ordinance shall prejudice or affect the rights of his Majesty the King, his heirs and successors, or any body politic or corporate, or any other person or persons except as are herein mentioned.
