CHAPTER 156.

PLANTATION SHOPS.

[No. XIII of 1921.]

[16th April, 1921.]

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Plantation Shops Ordinance. Short title.

2. In this Ordinance unless the context otherwise requires:— Interpretation.

“plantation” means any estate in cultivation, or any two or more estates in cultivation if adjacent to each other and managed as one estate, or any other piece of land in cultivation under one management of the extent of at least one hundred acres,

“proprietor” includes the lessee of a plantation, and the attorney of a proprietor or lessee.

3. Except as provided in the next ensuing section, no proprietor, manager, overseer, driver, ranger, or other officer, of any plantation shall keep any shop or store, or shall be interested in the profits of any shop or store, kept upon any plantation or within five miles thereof. No shop to be kept on or near plantation.

- 4.—(1) The Governor in Council may in his discretion grant a licence to the proprietor of a plantation, authorising him to keep a shop or store on the plantation, or within five miles thereof, for the sale of goods, wares, merchandise, or provisions. Licence to keep shop on plantation by proprietor.

(2) A licence granted under this section shall be for the period upon the terms, and subject to the conditions determined by the Governor in Council.

(3) No one to whom a licence is granted under this section shall be exempt from taking out any licence required to be taken out by him under the provisions of any Ordinance for the raising of colonial taxes.

(4) A licence granted under this section shall not be transferable without the consent of the Governor in Council.

(5) The Governor in Council may in his absolute discretion rescind any licence granted under this section, and when it is so rescinded, all right and authority conferred thereby shall thereupon cease and determine.

Mode of selling goods.

5.—(1) Every sale made by authority of a licence under this Ordinance shall be for payment of the price in money in exchange for the goods, and no goods shall be supplied on credit.

(2) No one licensed under this Ordinance shall sell any spirituous liquor, malt liquor, or wine.

Penalty.

6. Anyone who acts in contravention of any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.
