CHAPTER 110.

LABOUR (CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT OF CERTAIN WORKERS).

An Ordinance to regulate the conditions of employment of certain workers. 5 of 1952.

[1ST APRIL, 1952.]

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Labour (Conditions of Employment of Certain Workers) Ordinance. Short title.

2. In this Ordinance—

“ parlour ” shall have the meaning assigned to that expression by section 2 of the Shops Ordinance.

Interpretation.

Cap. 118.

“ wages ” includes anything received by a worker under the provisions of this Ordinance as part of his remuneration or by virtue of his employment ; and

“ worker ” means any of the persons specified in the first column of the schedule to this Ordinance and employed in any hotel, restaurant, cook-shop or parlour, but does not include any member of the family of the occupier of such premises.

Schedule

Minimum wages to be paid to certain workers. Schedule.

3. Every worker shall be paid the appropriate rate of wages set out in the second column of the schedule to this Ordinance :

Provided that the Governor in Council may from time to time by order published in the Gazette vary, alter or amend any of the aforesaid rates of wages as he thinks fit.

Over-time rates. Cap. 118.

4. Subject to the provisions of sections 6, 7 and 10 of the Shops Ordinance, every worker who at the request of his employer works for any period exceeding fifty-six hours in any one week, shall be paid in respect of every hour or part of an hour so worked in excess of fifty-six hours, at one and a half times the rate at which he would, but for this section, be paid.

Luncheon interval.

5. The employer of any worker who is employed in any hotel shall, on each working day, allow to such worker an interval from work of not less than one hour for luncheon or dinner as the case may be, and another interval of not less than fifteen minutes for any other meal taken on the premises.

Accommodation.

6. The employer of workers in any hotel shall provide a suitable room for the accommodation of workers during any intervals from work provided for by this Ordinance.

Weekly half-holiday.

7. Every employer shall grant to every worker a half-holiday on one week-day in every week, and in addition shall grant to such worker a half-holiday on every alternate Sunday.

Register.

8. (1) Every employer of workers shall keep a register in such form as the Commissioner of Labour may approve in which shall be entered—

- (a) particulars of wages paid to workers employed by him ;
- (b) the date on which each worker entered his employment.

(2) Every such employer shall produce the register for the inspection of the Commissioner of Labour, the Deputy Commissioner of Labour or any Inspector or Assistant Inspector of Labour, when requested to do so.

Offences.

9. (1) Any employer who—

- (a) fails to pay to any worker in his employ the wages prescribed by this Ordinance ; or
- (b) contravenes any of the provisions of sections 5 or 6 of this Ordinance ; or
- (c) fails to grant to any worker in his employ any half-holiday as required by section 7 of this Ordinance,— shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars.

(2) Any employer who—

(a) fails to keep a register in the manner prescribed by subsection (1) of section 8 of this Ordinance ; or

(b) fails without lawful excuse to produce the register for the inspection of any of the persons specified in subsection (2) of section 8 of this Ordinance—shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

10. This Ordinance shall apply to—

(a) the City of Georgetown and within three miles of the boundaries thereof ;

(b) the town of New Amsterdam ; and

(c) the village of Bartica.
