

CHAPTER 136.

MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS.

SECTION.

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.
3. Registration of certain medical practitioners.
4. Persons to whom this Ordinance applies.
5. Conditions for registration under Cap. 134.
6. Application of Part III of Cap. 134.

CHAPTER 136.

MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

An Ordinance to provide for the registration of certain Medical Practitioners and for purposes connected therewith. 10 of 1949.

[18TH JUNE, 1949.]

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Medical Practitioners Ordinance. Short title.

2. In this Ordinance—
 - “ the Board ” means the Medical Board established under section 16 of the Colonial Medical Service Ordinance. Interpretation.
Cap. 134.

3. Anything to the contrary contained in section 25 of the Colonial Medical Service Ordinance, and section 4 of the Medical Practitioners (Temporary Registration) Ordinance, notwithstanding, where any person to whom this section applies satisfies the Board that he fulfils the conditions hereinafter specified, the Board shall direct that his name be placed on the register of medical practitioners, and on that direction being given, the secretary of the Board shall register that person accordingly. Registration of certain medical practitioners.
Cap. 134.
Cap. 135.

4. Section 3 of this Ordinance shall apply to any person who—
 - (a) was born within the Colony ; or
 - (b) is domiciled in the Colony ; or
 - (c) was born of parents domiciled in the Colony.Persons to whom this Ordinance applies.

Conditions for registration under
Cap. 134.

5. Any person who desires to be registered by virtue of this Ordinance shall be required to satisfy the Board—

(a) that he is of good character ;

(b) that he holds a diploma obtained by examination after attending a prescribed medical course at a medical school approved by the American or Canadian Medical Association ;

(c) that his medical qualification is registrable in the country in which it was obtained ; and

(d) that his medical course was commenced within the period commencing on the 1st September, 1939, and ending on the 31st December, 1951 :

Provided that where any person within the meaning of section 4 of this Ordinance makes application to have his name placed on the register of medical practitioners, the Board, if satisfied that he possesses the requisite skill for the efficient practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section but subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section, direct, with the approval of the Governor in Council, that his name be placed on the register of medical practitioners, and upon that direction being given the secretary of the Board shall register that person accordingly.

Application of Part III
of Cap. 134.

6. The provisions of Part III of the Colonial Medical Service Ordinance, relating to persons registered under that Ordinance, save in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall apply to any person registered as a medical practitioner by virtue of this Ordinance.
