Amendment of regulation 5 of the Principal Regulations.

5. Regulation 5 of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended by the substitution for the word "registrar" of the words "registration officer".

Amendment of regulation 6 of the Principal Regulations.

6. Regulation 6 of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended by the substitution therefor of the following regulations –

"Registration of persons.

6.(1) A registration officer shall tender application forms and receive applications from eligible persons:

Provided that applications for the registration of persons referred to in proviso (a) to section 6(4) of the Act and who are resident at the qualifying date in any registration division may be made to the registration officer therefor, who shall furnish application forms to such applicants, at the office established for the purpose under that proviso.

(2) Every person making any such application as aforesaid shall –

(a) furnish the particulars regarding himself as at the qualifying date which are required for the purpose of completing Form R 01;

Form R 01

(b) furnish such documentary or other proof of any of the particulars referred to in sub-paragraph (a), including his birth certificate, as the registration officer may in any particular case reasonably require to satisfy himself of the truth thereof;

(c) comply with such requirements of the registration officer as may be reasonably necessary for the measurement and recording of his height;

(d) comply with such requirements of the registration officer as may be reasonably necessary for the taking and recording of his finger prints as may be determined by the Commission;

(e) answer any questions which the registration officer may in any particular case, reasonably consider necessary to put for the purpose of enabling him to decide whether the applicant is eligible to be registered as resident in the registration officer's registration division at the qualifying date.

(3) Every application under this regulation shall —

Form R 01

(a) be in Form R 01;

(b) be in triplicate;

(c) subject to paragraph (4), be completed on the part of the applicant in the presence of the registration officer and scrutineers, if the scrutineers are present;

(d) subject to regulation 10, be signed by the applicant; and

(e) have a printed serial number,

and the applicant shall be classified therein as Category A, in any case where his particulars are such as to qualify him for electoral registration as mentioned in section 14(1) of the Act, and as Category B in any other case.

(4) The process of continuous registration under section 6 of the Act shall be conducted every working day as may be determined by the Commission.

Investigation
by registration officer.

6A.(1) A registration officer, before registering any person as an elector, may require that person to produce a certificate of naturalisation, registration or other proof that he is either a citizen of Guyana or a citizen of a Commonwealth country domiciled and resident in Guyana.

(2) The registration officer may require any applicant for registration to give him such further information as will facilitate him in the discharge of his functions under these Regulations.

(3) The registration officer shall, subject to directions of the Commissioner, cause investigations to be made and hold enquiries as he deems necessary to satisfy himself as to the applicant's eligibility or otherwise to be registered as an elector, and for that purpose, he may summon witnesses or order the production of any document that he may deem necessary and receive and record any evidence adduced.

Form R 02

(4) The registration officer may conduct an investigation into the facts set out in each application received by him in Form R 02 to verify the residency and identity of the applicant.

Form R 01

(5) Where the registration officer is satisfied that the applicant is eligible to be registered, the registration officer shall prepare an application in triplicate in Form R 01 to be signed by the applicant.

Submission of
documents.

6B.(1) The registration officer shall, as soon as may be practicable, forward in the manner directed by the Commissioner the original and duplicate of registration records with photographs affixed.

(2) On receipt of the documents referred to in paragraph (1), the Commissioner shall –

- (a) ensure that the particulars are validated before the information is encoded;
- (b) thereafter cause the national identification card to be produced; and
- Form R 01 (c) file the original Form R 01 as part of the official records.

Form R 01 (3) The duplicate of the application for registration, Form R 01, shall be returned and shall be maintained in the office of the registration officer in alphabetical order according to surnames within registration divisions.

(4) The national identification card in respect of each applicant shall be prepared by the Commissioner and shall bear his facsimile signature.

(5) Every national identification card shall bear a serial number and such other identification features necessary to identify the applicant as the person whom he claims to be, and such identification features may be in the form of the applicant's facial photograph, facsimile signature or an imprint of the applicant's left thumb.

Preparation of monthly list.

6C. The registration officer as directed by the Commissioner shall publish a monthly supplementary list of all the persons who make claims to entry in the preliminary list, corrections of particulars and requests for transfer by posting such list in their respective offices and within each registration division.

Merger of list to establish the preliminary list.

6D. The Commissioner shall within the prescribed time, merge the monthly supplementary lists with the official list which was used to commence continuous registration.

(4) Whenever a registration officer recommends the replacement of a national identification card, he shall -

Form R 0 5 (a) forward to the Commissioner of Registration the original of Form R 05 of that person; and

(b) transmit, the national identification card if available to the Commissioner.

Form R 0 5 (5) The Commissioner shall verify the information on Form R 05 before a new card is prepared for the registrant.

(6) Whenever the Commissioner issues a replacement national identification card, he shall make or cause to be made an entry in the appropriate record showing the date of issue of the replacement national identification card and shall notify the appropriate registration officer of the issue of such card.

(7) The registration officer shall cause an entry to be made in the duplicate of the registration record of person who receives the replacement national identification card.

(8) A registration officer, on being satisfied as to the death of any person registered in his area to whom a national identification card was issued under these regulations, shall as soon as practicable after being so satisfied, require the representative of that person or any person in possession of the national identification card to surrender to him the national identification card that was issued to that person, if the registration officer is satisfied that it is within the power of any such person to do so.

(9) On the expiry of a national identification card the holder shall apply for the renewal of such card in Form R 13.

Form R 13

Amendment of regulation 42 of the Principal Regulations.

40. Regulation 42 of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended as follows-
- (a) by the substitution for the words "card" and "cards" , wherever they appear, (including the marginal note) of the words "record" and "records", respectively; and
 - (b) by the insertion immediately after paragraph (2) of the following paragraph-

"(3) If either the original or the duplicate or both of a registration record of an elector is lost, destroyed or damaged, the Commissioner shall prepare a photocopy of the record from the remaining copy or from the computerised data base and that copy shall be deemed to replace the lost, destroyed or damaged original or duplicate of the registration record, as the case may be; and the Commissioner shall make and sign a certificate on the photocopy of the record to the effect that it is a true and correct reproduction.”.

Amendment of regulation 43 of the Principal Regulations.

41. Regulation 43 of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraphs (2) and (3) of the following -

“(2) Each registration officer shall be responsible for completing the forms required by these Regulations.

(3) Forms prescribed by these Regulations may be used with such modifications, variations, alterations and additions, as the Commission considers expedient in order to facilitate the use of the forms in the due administration of the Act and the Regulations whether generally or in any particular case, from time to time.”.

Amendment of regulation 44 of the Principal Regulations.

42. Regulation 44 of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended as follows -

(a) by the substitution for the words “as registrar, deputy registrar or divisional registrar” of the words “registration officer”;

(b) by the substitution for the words “Form 16” of the words “Form R17”.

Amendment of regulation 50 of the Principal Regulations.

43. Regulation 50 (1) of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended as follows-

(a) by the deletion in sub-paragraph (a), for the words beginning with the word “or”, where it appears for the fifth time and ending with the word “direction” and of the word “8”;

(b) by the substitution for the word “card”, wherever it appears, of the word “record”;

(c) by the substitution for the words “divisional registrar”, wherever they appear, of the words “registration officer”; and

(d) by the deletion in sub-paragraph (i) of the words “or 41 (4)”

Amendment of Schedule to the Principal
Regulations.

44. The Schedule to the Principal Regulations is hereby amended by the substitution for the Forms therein of the Forms in the Schedule.
