dule.

(3) Every application for the appointment of a proxy on account of an elector's blindness or other physical incapacity shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner to the effect that his blindness or other physical incapacity is such that he is unable or likely to be unable to go in person to his polling-place on the day of the poll, or if able to go, to vote unaided.

(4) As soon as may be after issue of a proxy paper the returning officer shall notify the applicant thereof.

(5) If a returning officer does not issue a proxy paper in pursuance of an application made to him for the appointment of a proxy, he shall notify the applicant of his reason for not so doing.

(6) Where the appointment of a proxy is cancelled by notice given to the returning officer, the returning officer shall forthwith remove his name from the list of proxies.

(7) A notice cancelling the appointment of a proxy shall be disregarded if it is received by the returning officer on or after the tenth day before polling day.

(8) The list of proxies to be kept by the returning officer shall be in the form set out as Form No. 4 in the first schedule.

Form No. 4
First schedule.

10.(1) The returning officer shall take measures before the commencement of the taking of the poll to ensure that every polling place is properly numbered and adequately designated and provided with proper doors, barriers, tables, chairs and other conveniences, and that the same are properly arranged for carrying out the purposes of the Ordinance and of these Regulations.

Preparation of polling-places.

(2) The returning officer or his election clerk shall on or before the day fixed for the taking of the poll and before the commencement of the taking thereof, if convenient for him so to do, visit every polling-place and see that every polling-place is provided with doors, barriers, tables, chairs and conveniences as aforesaid.

11.(1) The returning officer shall provide each polling-place with such number of compartments as may be necessary in which the electors can mark their votes screened from observation.

Polling compartments at polling-places.

(2) Nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to require that a polling compartment shall wholly enlose the elector.

12. There shall be printed on every ballot paper opposite to the names of each candidate one of the symbols shown in the appendix to these Regulations. The order in which such symbols are allocated to candidates shall correspond with the order in which the names of the candidates appear on the list of persons nominated prepared in accordance with section 17 of the Ordinance and regulation 5 of these Regulations.

Allocation of symbols. Appendix.

13. For the guidance of electors the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause notices to be printed in conspicuous characters (English, Urdu and Nagri) in the form set out as Form No. 5 in the first schedule.

Directions to electors. Form No. 5

First schedule.

14.(1) The returning officer shall supply every presiding officer with —

Supplies of election material.

- (a) a sufficient number of ballot papers and a sufficient number of tendered ballot papers;
- (b) a statement showing the number of ballot papers and tendered ballot papers so supplied, with their serial numbers;
- (c) the necessary materials for electors to mark their ballot papers;
- (d) at least three copies of printed directions for voting in the form referred to in regulation 13 for the guidance of electors in voting;
- (e) copies of or excerpts from the Ordinance and these Regulations;
- (f) at least three copies of the official list of electors or such part thereof as contains the names of the electors entitled to vote at the polling-place at which he is appointed to preside, certified under the hand of the returning officer;
- (g) a ballot box, and materials for affixing thereto or stamping thereon the presiding officer's seal;
- (h) a poll book and a sufficient number of poll cards;

- (i) the several forms of oaths to be administered to electors printed together on a card; and
- (j) the necessary envelopes and such other forms and supplies as may be authorised or furnished by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(2) The ballot box shall be of convenient size, and shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be put therein, but cannot be withdrawn therefrom, without the box being unlocked.

(3) Until the opening of the poll the presiding officer shall keep the ballot papers, the official lists of electors, the poll book and poll cards, the forms of oaths, envelopes and other election supplies carefully locked up, using the ballot box for this purpose if it is practicable to do so, and shall take every precaution for their safe keeping and to prevent any person having unlawful access to them.

(4) Before the hours fixed for the opening of the poll the presiding officer shall post up in a conspicuous position outside the polling-place a copy of the directions for voting referred to in paragraph (d) of subregulation (1) of this regulation.

Election agent, polling agent and counting agent.
Form No. 6
First schedule.

15. (1) The notice of appointment of an election agent referred to in subsection (1) of section 47 of the Ordinance shall be in the form set out as Form No. 6 in the first schedule.

(2) An election agent may appoint one polling agent to attend at each polling-place, and may appoint one of the polling agents (hereinafter referred to as a counting agent) to attend at the counting of votes at the head polling-place.

Form No. 7
First schedule.

(3) Not less than three clear days before polling day the election agent shall give notice in writing to the returning officer in the form set out as Form No. 7 in the first schedule, of the name and address of every polling agent and of the counting agent so appointed, and the returning officer shall thereupon forthwith give public notice of the name and address of every polling agent and every counting agent so declared by causing placards to be affixed in a conspicuous position, on such polling places, court-houses, post offices and police stations in the electoral district as the returning officer may deem necessary.

(4) If a polling or counting agent dies, or becomes incapable of acting, the election agent may appoint another agent in his place, and shall forthwith give to the returning officer (or where that is not practicable, to the appropriate presiding officer) notice in writing of the name and address of the agent so appointed.

(5) Any notice required to be given to a counting agent by the returning officer may be delivered at or sent by post to the address stated in the notice of appointment.

(6) A candidate may himself do any act or thing which any polling or counting agent of his, if appointed, would have been authorised to do, or may assist his agent in doing any such act or thing.

(7) Where by these regulations any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of the polling or counting agents, the non-attendance of any agents or agent at the time and place appointed for the purpose, shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate the act or thing done.

16.(1) The presiding officer shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted to the polling-place at the same time and shall, subject to sub-regulation (2) of this regulation, exclude all other persons except —

Admission to polling-place.

- (a) the candidates and their election agents;
- (b) the polling agents appointed to attend at the polling-place;
- (c) the assistant presiding officer and poll clerks appointed to attend at the polling-place;
- (d) the members of the police force on duty; and
- (e) the friends of blind or otherwise incapacitated electors:

(2) The Commissioner of Elections, the Chief Electoral Officer and the returning officer and elections clerk of the electoral district shall be admitted to any polling-place in the electoral district at any time.

(3) The candidates or their agents in a polling-place shall be posted in such a place that they can see each person who presents himself as an elector and interfere in the proceedings to the extent allowed by the Ordinance and these Regulations, but so that they cannot see how any elector votes or otherwise interfere in the proceedings.

17. Immediately before the commencement of the poll the presiding officer shall, after locking the ballot box as directed by section 36 (1) of the Ordinance, place his seal on it in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal.

Sealing of ballot boxes.

18.(1) Each elector upon entering the polling-place shall state to the poll clerk his name, occupation, place of residence and postal address (as they appear on the official list of electors).

Poll cards.

(2) Every person voting as proxy for an elector shall state to the poll clerk his name and address and the name, occupation, place of residence and postal address of the elector on whose behalf he is appointed to vote as proxy (as they appear on the official list of electors).

(3) When the poll clerk has ascertained that the name of the elector appears on the official list of electors for the polling-place he shall write on a card (in these Regulations referred to as a "poll card") the number of the elector on the said official list of electors and the poll card shall be given to the elector or proxy as the case may be.

(4) The poll card shall be in the form set out as Form No. 8 in the first schedule.

(5) Each person on coming to vote shall deliver the poll card to the presiding officer or assistant presiding officer.

Form No. 8
First schedule.

(6) The presiding officer of a polling-place situate in any electoral district, polling division or group of polling divisions specified in the second schedule shall include in his ballot paper account a statement certified under his hand of the number of poll cards issued to —

- (a) electors whose names are not on the official list of electors for the polling division in which the polling-place is situate; and
- (b) electors whose names are not on the official list of electors for the polling area in which the polling-place is situate.

(7) The statement referred to in the preceding subregulation shall not include the number of poll cards issued to electors whose names have been transferred under the provisions of section 29 of the Ordinance.

Duty of presiding officer on
the poll.

19. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of the poll, the presiding officer shall, in the presence of such candidates and agents as may be in attendance, make up into separate packets, properly labelled and sealed with his own seal and the seals of those candidates or their agents who desire to affix their seals —

- (a) each ballot box in use at the polling-place, sealed so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers and unopened, but with the key attached;
 - (b) the unused and spoiled ballot papers placed together;
 - (c) the tendered ballot papers;
 - (d) the counterfoils of the used and spoiled ballot papers and of the tendered ballot papers;
 - (e) the marked copies of the official list of electors;
 - (f) the proxy papers surrendered to the presiding officer;
 - (g) the poll book and used and unused poll cards,
- and shall with all convenient speed deliver the packets to the returning officer.

(2) The counterfoils of the used and spoiled ballot papers and of the tendered ballot papers shall on no account be kept in the same packet with any other election document or material.

(3) The packets shall be accompanied by —

- (a) a statement (in these Regulations referred to as "the ballot paper account") made by the presiding officer showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him, and accounting for them under the heads of ballot papers in the ballot box, unused, spoiled and tendered ballot papers;
- (b) in the case of a polling-place situate in any electoral district, any polling division or any group of polling divisions specified in the second schedule, the statemnet prepared in accordance with subregulation (6) of regulation 18.

(4) If any presiding officer shall omit to carry out any of the requirements of this regulation he shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable, forfeit all right to payment for his services as such officer.

Attendance at counting of votes.

20. (1) The returning officer shall make arrangements for counting the votes in the presence of the counting agents as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, and shall give to the counting agents notice of the time and place at which he will begin to count the votes.

(2) No person other than—

- (a) the returning officer, and such other election officers as he may appoint to assist him in the counting;
- (b) the candidates and their wives or husbands;
- (c) the election agents; and
- (d) the counting agents, may be present at the counting of the votes, unless permitted by the returning officer to attend.

(3) The returning officer shall give the counting agents all such reasonable facilities for overseeing the proceedings, and all such information with respect thereto, as he can give them consistently with the orderly conduct of the proceedings and the discharge of his duties in connection therewith.

21. The returning officer shall endorse the word "rejected" on any ballot paper which he may reject as invalid, and shall add to the endorsement the words "rejection objected to" if any objection be in fact made by a candidate or his agent to the decision.

Rejected ballot papers and report thereon.

22. (1) Together with, or as soon as may be after, the return of the writ to the Governor as directed by section 44 of the Ordinance, the returning officer shall make a return to the Chief Electoral Officer, showing, in relation to each polling-place —

Returns as to voting at each polling-place to be sent to the Governor.

- (a) the number of persons who appear to have voted;
- (b) the number of spoiled ballot papers delivered to him;
- (c) the number of persons to whom from the counterfoils, ballot papers appear to have been supplied;
- (d) the number of votes counted by him given to each candidate; and
- (e) the number of ballot papers rejected and not counted by him under the several heads.

(2) The return to the Chief Electoral Officer shall be in the form prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer and shall be forwarded in triplicate to him, and be published in the Gazette in any summarized form deemed suitable by him.

23. Not later than seven days after the return to the writ the returning officer shall forward to the Chief Electoral Officer a report of the proceedings in the form prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer.

Returning officer's report of proceedings.

24. (1) The election expenses returns, referred to in subsection (1) of section 55 of the Ordinance, shall be in the form set out as Form No. 9 of the first schedule.
