EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Clause 2 of this Bill seeks to amend the National Insurance and Social Security Act, Cap. 36:01, to make provision for the payment of additional benefits to a mother who has lost earnings by being absent from work solely for the purpose of caring of her sick child where she is an uninsured woman who is the spouse of an insured man.

Clause 3 seeks to increase the interest, from eight per cent to a rate which is one per cent greater than the rate charged by commercial banks, payable on contributions due to the Fund but it also provides for the waiving of such interest where the default was unintentional.
