ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE SPEAKER

Statement By The Speaker Concerning A Remark Made By Mr. Idris Deen About The General Secretary Of The Trades Union Congress

The Speaker made the following statement:

Hon. Members, as you are aware, while the Hon. Shree Chait Minister of Trade, Tourism and Industry, was speaking on Tuesday January 28, 1997, on the Budget Debate, he mentioned Mr. Joseph Pollydore by name and stated that Mr. Pollydore, the General Secretary of the Trades Union Congress, commended the Budget, and while the Hon. Minister was referring to Mr. Pollydore's statement, the Hon. Member, Mr. Idris Deen, a People's National Congress front bench Member, shouted in a loud voice "he is senile"

Immediately, some Hon. Members on the Government side called on Mr. Deen to apologise but he made no attempt to do so.

When the Hon. Member, Miss Jean Persico, Member of the PNC, at the beginning of her speech, referred to the qualities of Mr. Pollydore, I interrupted her, and I apologised to her for doing so, as I thought if there had to be an apology about the "senile" statement, it had to come from Hon. Member, Mr. Deen. I told the Hon. Member, Miss Persico, that the Hon. Member Mr. Deen, had said that Mr. Pollydore was senile and thereupon Mr. Deen stood up. I thought he did so to apologise but instead he said he did not call any name. As he obviously had no intention to apologise. I requested of him to take his seat and reminded him that it was after the Hon. Minister Shree Chan had mentioned Mr. Pollydore's name that he (Mr. Deen) had said "he is senile".

Later in the evening, while the Assembly was still in session and I was presiding, the Hon. Member, Mr. Barrow, who I believe is the PNC Chief Whip, sent a note as follows: "Mr. Speaker, Mr. Deen would like to offer an apology re: Mr. Pollydore's statement. When will you allow him to do so? D. Barrow".

I called the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow to the Chair and told him that Mr. Deen had ample opportunities to apologise and had refused to do so but, nevertheless, I would consider his request and inform him, the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow, when I would permit the Hon. Member Mr. Deen to do so under the Standing Orders. I also asked the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow to let me know if he had any suggestions.

Before the sitting of the Assembly yesterday, I informed the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow that I was prepared to permit the Hon. Member Mr. Deen to make an apology under the item of "Personal Explanations" on the Order Paper, although I had some doubt that it could be done, but I was prepared to give the Hon. Member Mr. Deen the benefit of any doubt. The Hon. Member Mr. Barrow said he also thought it could be done under the item "Personal Explanations".

I then told the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow that the Hon. Member Mr. Deen, under the Standing Orders, would have to make a request to me, to make an apology. I then asked the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow to tell the Hon. Member Mr. Deen to come and see me.

The Hon. Member Mr. Barrow left my Chambers and returned informing me that the Hon. Member Mr. Deen said he is not prepared to apologise. Neither did Mr. Deen come to see me.

As far as I was concerned, that was the end of the matter.

However, last night I was informed that the PNC Secretariat had issued a statement in connection with the matter.

I thought that the PNC had taken the opportunity to disassociate itself from the view that Mr. Pollydore was senile, as expressed by one of its leading Members and that the PNC will apologise to Mr. Pollydore.

The Release however failed to do so.

Instead, the Release, among other things, stated that "there was an apparent controversy over a statement made by a PNC Member of Parliament" and then maliciously accused me of refusing "a request by the PNC to address the matter" in order "to allow the issue to remain overnight so that the mouthpiece of the PPP, the Guyana Chronicle, and we expect the Mirror will follow suit to use the incident for nefarious political purpose".

Hon. Members, as far as I am aware, there was no apparent or any controversy over the statement when the Hon. Member Mr. Deen said "he is senile" nor was there any request by the PNC to address the issue. The issue involved a Member of the PNC who, as I have stated earlier, had refused to address the issue on the day of the incident when he had the opportunities to do so.

After I was informed by the Hon. Member Mr. Barrow that the Hon. Member Mr. Deen would like to apologise, the first opportunity, if any, under the Standing Orders, was to permit the Hon. Member Mr. Deen to make an apology under the item "Personal Explanations" at the sitting the next day.

As I have stated earlier, I agreed to permit the Hon. Member Mr. Deen to do so and he refused.

The Release also states that "the PNC believes that there will always be differences of opinion and respects the right of people to differ".

It therefore seems that the PNC in effect is saying that the Hon. Member Mr. Deen was entitled to his opinion about Mr. Pollydore and therefore there was no need for the PNC to disassociate itself from the statement by the Hon. Member Mr. Deen.
