

CHAPTER 212.

ALIEN CRIMINALS.

[No. II of 1886.]

[12th May, 1886.]

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Alien Criminals Ordinance. Short title.

2. In this Ordinance, the term "alien criminal" means an alien who, having been sentenced by any foreign tribunal to imprisonment or transportation for a crime, afterwards comes to this colony either before or after the expiration of his term of imprisonment or transportation. Interpretation of "Alien criminal."

3.—(1) The Inspector General of Police or any inspector of police may, by writing under his hand addressed to a constable, cause anyone whom there is reasonable ground to believe to be an alien criminal to be taken into custody and brought before a magistrate. Persons suspected to be alien criminals.

(2) If it appears to the magistrate that there are reasonable grounds for that belief, he shall call upon the person so brought before him to declare his name, the country whereto he belongs or is subject, the port or place whence, the vessel whereby, and the day whereon he arrived in the colony.

(3) If the person fails to make it appear to the satisfaction of the magistrate that he is not an alien criminal, the magistrate shall adjudge him to be a suspected person under this Ordinance and subject to the supervision of the police for a period not exceeding five years.

(4) Where the magistrate is of opinion that the person, although an alien criminal, had completed his term of imprisonment or deportation before arriving in the colony, the magistrate, when the person, together with two sufficient householders to be approved by the magistrate, has entered into a recognizance to His Majesty, each in the sums of five hundred dollars, conditioned for his good behaviour during the term of three years from the day of Where alien criminal has completed term of imprisonment.

the date of the recognizance, may forbear to make any adjudication; and, on the recognizance being entered into, he shall be discharged from custody.

Effect of order for police supervision.

Chapter 19.

4. Every order of a magistrate that a person adjudged to be a suspected person under this Ordinance shall be subject to the supervision of the police shall have the same effect as the order of the court under sections three and four of the Prevention of Crimes Ordinance, and the suspected person shall, during the term for which he is so made subject to the supervision of the police, be deemed to be subject to the supervision of the police under the provisions of those sections.

Criminal
status of suspected person.

Chapter 19.

5. Every person adjudged to be a suspected person under this Ordinance shall, during the term for which he is subject to the supervision of the police, be deemed a person to whom the provisions of section six of the Prevention of Crimes Ordinance apply, and, if guilty of any of the offences therein mentioned, shall be dealt with and punished under those provisions.

Residence of suspected
person
within specified district.

6.—(1) Where a person is adjudged to be a suspected person under this Ordinance, the Inspector General of Police by writing under his hand, may require that person to reside within any district of the colony therein specified.

(2) Anyone failing to conform to that requirement shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months.
