SCHEDULE.

". . . Until sufficient funds shall be available for the erection of an asylum for permanently disabled planters, I desire that two-thirds of the interest of the said second share so invested shall be applied to the relief of destitute and decayed planters without distinction, except as hereinafter provided, of race or creed; the persons relieved and the number relieved and the amount given to each being left to the administrators hereinafter appointed, as to whom my wish is that they shall endeavour to give effectual relief to the greatest number that the money will allow, provided always that those who are in the opinion of the administrators, confirmed drunkards shall not be entitled to participate in the benefits thereof. And I further desire that the remaining one-third of the said interest shall be applied by the said administrators to the relief of destitute widows and orphans of deceased planters, relief being granted to boys until they attain the age of sixteen and to girls until they attain the age of twenty-one or marry
