CHAPTER 345.

FIREARMS.

An Ordinance to make provision for the importation, sale, possession and use of firearms and ammunition and for the registration, and licensing, of firearms, and for matters connected with the matters aforesaid.

[1ST DECEMBER, 1940.]

11 of 1940.
4 of 1945.
31 of 1947.
49 of 1950.

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Firearms Ordinance.

2. In this Ordinance—

tion.

“acquiring” means hiring, accepting as a gift and borrowing, and the expressions “acquire” and “acquisition” shall be construed accordingly;

“ammunition,” except where otherwise expressly provided, means ammunition for any firearm as hereinafter defined, and includes grenades, bombs and other like missiles, whether capable of use with such firearm or not, and prohibited ammunition;

“firearm,” except where otherwise expressly provided, means any lethal barrelled weapon of any description from which any shot, bullet or other missile can be discharged and includes any prohibited weapon, whether it is such a lethal weapon as aforesaid or not, any component part of any such lethal or prohibited weapon, and any accessory to any such weapon designed or adapted to diminish the noise or flash caused by firing the weapon;

“firearms dealer” means a person who, by way of trade or business, manufactures, sells, transfers, repairs, tests or proves firearms or ammunition to which Part III of this Ordinance applies;

“offence under this Ordinance” includes any act, omission or other thing which is punishable under this Ordinance;

“police constable” includes any member of the police force of the Colony;

“prohibited ammunition” means any ammunition referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 32 of this Ordinance;

“prohibited weapon” means any firearm or weapon referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 32 of this Ordinance;

“slaughtering instrument” means a firearm which is specially designed or adapted for the instantaneous slaughter of animals or for the instantaneous stunning of animals with a view to slaughtering them;

“transferring” includes letting on hire, giving, lending, and parting with possession, and the expressions “transfer,” “transferee” and “transferor” shall be construed accordingly;

“valid licence” or “valid permit” means a licence or permit issued under this Ordinance which is not time expired.

PART I.—PRODUCTION OF FIREARMS FOR REGISTRATION.

All firearms to be surrendered at nearest police station within 2 months of the commencement of this Ordinance.

3. (1) Within two months of the commencement of this Ordinance every person who has in his possession, custody or control any firearm to which the provisions of this Ordinance apply shall surrender such firearm to the officer in charge of a police station:

Provided that—

(a) the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any person holding a valid dealer's licence except with regard to any firearm the said person may have in his possession, custody or control for his own use and not for sale or hire; and

(b) if in any case it is impossible or appears to be unreasonably inconvenient to surrender any firearm within the aforesaid period of two months the person owning or having in his possession or control such firearm shall report the facts in writing to the Commissioner of Police within two months of the commencement of this Ordinance and the said Commissioner may, in his discretion, extend the period within which the surrender of such firearm shall be made.

(2) Within two months of the commencement of this Ordinance every person holding a valid dealer's licence, issued under section 6 of the (repealed) Arms and Ammunition Ordinance, shall submit to the Commissioner of Police a return showing the total number of firearms in his custody, possession or control, other than those retained for his personal use, and shall, in respect of each such firearm, state the maker's name and the distinguishing mark or number thereof.

Cap. 75 of the 1929 Edition.

No penalty or forfeiture of firearm by reason only of the fact that it is unlicensed.

4. No person who surrenders any firearm in compliance with the provisions of the last preceding section shall be liable to any penalty or forfeiture by reason only of the fact that at the time of such surrender, or at any time prior to such surrender, he holds, or held, no valid licence in respect of such firearm or that he obtained such firearm without being in possession of a certificate stating that he was a fit and proper person to whom a licence might be issued.

All firearms to bear a distinguishing mark or number.

5. Every officer to whom any firearm is surrendered shall satisfy himself that such firearm has engraved or otherwise clearly marked upon it a distinguishing mark or number and, in the absence of such distinguishing mark or number, shall himself engrave or mark, or cause to be engraved or marked, thereon a distinguishing mark or number.

6. There shall be kept at every police station a firearms register which shall be in the form A in the first schedule hereto.

Register of firearms to be kept by police. First schedule.

7. Each officer in charge of a police station shall enter in a firearms register the required information in respect of every firearm surrendered to him in compliance with the provisions of section 3.

Entries in register.

8. No firearm surrendered in accordance with the provisions of section 3 shall be delivered back to the person who surrendered such firearm, or to any other person on his behalf, until he produces or causes to be produced, to the officer in charge of the police station where the firearm was surrendered a valid firearm licence in respect of that firearm.

No firearm to be returned to person surrendering it unless and until a valid licence is produced.

9. (1) Any person having a firearm in his possession, custody or control who fails to surrender such firearm in the manner and within the period provided by section 3 or, if such period is extended by the Commissioner of Police, then within the period so extended shall, on summary conviction, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such imprisonment and fine, and the firearm in respect of which the offence was committed shall be forfeited.

Penalty for non-surrender of firearms.

(2) Any person who holds a valid dealer's licence who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (2) of section 3 shall, on summary conviction, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months and the court may direct that the licence be cancelled.

10. Any firearm not surrendered in compliance with the provisions of section 3 shall be liable at any time to be seized by any constable and the destruction or disposal of any firearm so seized shall be at the discretion of the Commissioner of Police.

Firearms not surrendered to be liable to seizure and forfeiture.

11. In this Part of this Ordinance the expression "officer in charge of a police station" includes any member of the police force for the time being in charge of a police station.

Interpretation.

PART II.—SUPERVISION OF IMPORTATION OF FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION.

12. No firearms or ammunition shall be imported into the Colony by sea or air except at a prescribed port or at a prescribed aerodrome.

Prescribed ports and aerodromes for importation of firearms by sea or air.

Firearms imported by land to be deposited at nearest police station.

13. All firearms and ammunition imported into the Colony by land shall be deposited at the police station nearest to the point at which the Colony frontier was crossed by the person bearing, or in control of, such firearm or ammunition.

No imported firearm to be withdrawn from a customs warehouse or police station unless and until marked with distinguishing mark or number.

14. No person shall withdraw from a customs warehouse or from a police station any firearm unless and until such firearm has engraved, or otherwise clearly marked, upon it a distinguishing mark or number:

Provided that a registered firearms dealer may withdraw a firearm not bearing a distinguishing mark or number from a customs warehouse or from a police station on the express condition that such dealer shall, within one month of such withdrawal, cause such firearm to be so engraved or marked.

Terms upon which firearms may be withdrawn from customs warehouse and police station.

15. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance no person shall withdraw any firearm or ammunition from a customs warehouse until he, or some other person on his behalf, has produced for examination by the customs officer in charge of the warehouse either—

(a) a valid firearm licence authorising the possession of such firearm or such quantity of ammunition; or

(b) a firearms dealer's certificate.

(2) No firearm or ammunition deposited in a police station in accordance with the provisions of section 13 shall be delivered back to the person who deposited it, or to any other person on his behalf, until such person has produced, or caused to be produced, a firearms licence authorising the possession of such firearm or such quantity of ammunition.

PART III.—REGULATION OF PURCHASE, POSSESSION, MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF CERTAIN FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS.

Purchase and Possession of certain Firearms and Ammunition.

Penalty for purchasing or possessing firearms or ammunition without licence.

16. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, no person shall purchase, acquire or have in his possession any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies unless he holds a firearm licence in force at the time.

(2) If any person—

(a) purchases, acquires or has in his possession any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies without holding a firearm licence in force at the time, or otherwise than as authorised by such a licence, or, in the case of ammunition, in quantities in excess of those so authorised; or

(b) fails to comply with any condition subject to which a firearm licence is held by him;

he shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, for each offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

17. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance no person shall import, purchase or acquire any ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies unless he delivers to the customs officer in charge of the warehouse, or the seller or transferor, as the case may be, a permit (in this section referred to as a "permit") authorising the importation or purchase or acquisition of such ammunition.

Penalty for importing, purchasing or acquiring ammunition without a permit.
First schedule.

(2) An application for the issue of a permit under this section shall be made in the prescribed form to the prescribed officer for the area in which the applicant resides and shall state such particulars as may be required by the said form:

First schedule.

Provided that any passenger who, having in his possession or control any ammunition, disembarks at a prescribed port or at a prescribed aerodrome shall make application for the issue of a permit in the prescribed form to the prescribed officer for the area in which such port or aerodrome is situated.

(3) The permit, which shall be in the prescribed form, may be issued by the prescribed officer in such cases in which he is satisfied that the applicant has good reason for importing, purchasing or acquiring the amount of ammunition stated in the application or such lesser amount as may be stated in the permit.

(4) Every person who sells or transfers any ammunition to any other person shall endorse the date of the sale or transfer on the permit and shall—

(a) if he is a registered dealer, retain the permit in his possession for a period of not less than one year; or

(b) if he is not a registered dealer, send the permit to the superintendent in charge of the police in the county in which the transaction took place.

(5) Any person aggrieved by a refusal of the prescribed officer to authorise the importation, purchase or acquisition of ammunition or to authorise the purchase or acquisition of the amount of ammunition desired may appeal by petition in writing to the Governor in Council whose decision shall be final.

(6) If any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or any other person, the issue of a permit under this section he shall for such offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(7) If any person sells or transfers any ammunition to any other person without obtaining a permit from that other person or sells or transfers to any other person an amount of ammunition in excess of that authorised by any permit he shall for such offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(8) If any person, with a view to purchasing or acquiring any ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, produces, or delivers, to any other person a false permit or a permit in which any false entry has been made, or personates a person to whom a permit has been granted, he shall for each offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

18. (1) An application for the grant of a licence under this section shall be made in the prescribed form to the prescribed officer for the area in which the applicant resides and shall state such particulars as may be required by the said form:

Provided that if any applicant is for any reason unable to state all the particulars so required he shall state those known to him and in such case the prescribed officer may at his discretion issue to the applicant a permit in the prescribed form (hereinafter in this section referred to as a "permit"). Such permit shall state the conditions (if any) subject to which a licence may be granted to the applicant:

And provided further that any passenger who, having in his possession or control a firearm in respect of which he holds no valid licence, disembarks at a prescribed port or at a prescribed aerodrome shall make application for the grant of a licence in the prescribed form to the prescribed officer for the area in which such port or aerodrome is situated.

(2) A licence or permit shall be granted by the prescribed officer in such cases only in which he is satisfied that the applicant has a good reason for purchasing, acquiring or having in his possession the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the application is made, and can be permitted to have in his possession that firearm or ammunition without danger to the public safety or to the peace:

Provided that a licence or permit shall not be granted to a person whom the prescribed officer has reason to believe to be prohibited by this Ordinance from possessing a firearm to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, or to be of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or to be for any reason unfitted to be entrusted with such a firearm.

(3) The holder of a permit may, on ascertaining the particulars which were unknown to him at the time of making application for such permit, endorse such particulars on the permit and submit it to the prescribed officer for the area in which he intends to take possession of the firearm and in such case a licence may be issued to him by such prescribed officer.

(4) A licence granted under this section shall be in the prescribed form and shall specify the conditions (if any) subject to which it is held, the nature and distinguishing numbers or marks of the firearms to which it relates, and, as respects ammunition, the quantities authorised to be purchased and to be held at any one time thereunder.

First
schedule.

(5) A firearm licence shall, unless previously revoked or cancelled, continue in force until the last day of December in the year in which it was granted.

(6) The prescribed officer for the area in which the holder of a firearm licence resides may at any time by notice in writing vary the conditions subject to which the licence is held, except such of them as may be prescribed, and may by the notice require the holder to deliver up the licence to him within twenty-one days from the date of the notice for the purpose of amending the conditions specified therein.

(7) A firearm licence may also, on the application of the holder thereof, be varied from time to time by the prescribed officer for the area in which the holder for the time resides.

(8) A firearm licence may be revoked by the prescribed officer for the area in which the holder resides if—

(a) the prescribed officer is satisfied that the holder is prohibited by this Ordinance from possessing a firearm to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, or is of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or is otherwise unfitted to be entrusted with such a firearm; or

(b) the holder fails to comply with a notice under subsection (6) of this section requiring him to deliver up the licence.

(9) Any person aggrieved by a refusal of the prescribed officer to grant him a licence under this section or to vary a firearm licence, or by the revocation of a firearm licence under paragraph (a) of the last foregoing subsection, may appeal by petition in writing to the Governor in Council whose decision shall be final.

(10) In any case where a firearm licence is revoked by the prescribed officer, he shall by notice in writing require the holder to surrender the licence, and, if the holder fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars:

Provided that when a petition is addressed to the Governor in Council praying that the revocation be rescinded this subsection shall have effect as if for the reference to the date of the notice there were substituted a reference to the date of the reply from the Chief Secretary notifying the decision of the Governor in Council.

(11) If any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or any other person, the grant of a licence under this section, or the variation of a firearm licence, he shall for such offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

19. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of section 21 of this Ordinance the following fee shall be payable in respect of each firearm included in a licence—

(a) on the grant of a firearm licence in respect of each rifle, shot or other gun or combined rifle and shot gun... ..	$ c.
(b) on the grant of a firearm licence in respect of a pistol or revolver	5 00

Provided that any person holding a licence valid under the (repealed) Arms and Ammunition Ordinance in respect of any firearm surrendered in compliance with the provisions of section 3 of this Ordinance shall, in exchange for such licence, be issued with a licence under this Ordinance without payment of a fee.

(2) No fee shall be payable on the grant, to any responsible officer of a rifle club, miniature rifle club or cadet corps approved for the purpose by the Governor in Council, of a licence in respect of firearms or ammunition to be used solely for target practice or drill by the members of the club or corps, or on the variation of a licence so granted.

Fees in respect of licences.

Cap. 75 of the 1929 Edition.

(3) No fee shall be payable on the grant or variation of a licence if the prescribed officer is satisfied that the licence relates solely to and, in the case of a variation, will continue when varied to relate solely to—

(a) a firearm or ammunition which the applicant requires as part of the equipment of a ship; or

(b) a signalling apparatus, or ammunition therefor, which the applicant requires as part of the equipment of an aircraft or aerodrome; or

(c) an instrument, or ammunition therefor, which the applicant intends to use solely for the purpose of the slaughter of animals in a slaughter-house or other place used for the slaughter of animals.

(4) No fee shall be payable—

(a) on the grant of a licence relating solely to a firearm which is shown to the satisfaction of the prescribed officer to be kept by the applicant as a trophy of war; or

(b) on any variation of a licence the sole effect of which is to add such a firearm as aforesaid to the firearms to which the licence relates;

if the licence is granted subject to the condition that the applicant shall not use the firearm.

(5) No licence fee shall be payable by an Amerindian in respect of any firearm. 31 of 1947,
s. 3.

(6) Where the Chief Secretary certifies in writing that the firearm to which a firearms licence relates is essential to the work of any Government officer or employee as such, no licence fee shall be payable by such Government officer or employee in respect of such firearm. 31 of 1947,
s. 3.

20. (1) The following provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything in section 16 of this Ordinance.

(2) A person carrying on the business of a firearms dealer and registered as such, or a servant of such a person, may, without holding a firearm licence (in this section referred to as a "licence") purchase, acquire or have in his possession a firearm or ammunition in the ordinary course of that business. Exemption from holding a firearm licence.

(3) A person carrying on the business of a carrier or warehouseman, or a servant of such a person, may, without holding a licence, have in his possession a firearm or ammunition in the ordinary course of that business.

(4) The proprietor of a slaughter-house or a person appointed by him to take charge of slaughtering instruments and ammunition therefor for the purpose of storing them in safe custody at that slaughter-house may, without holding a licence, have in his possession a slaughtering instrument or ammunition therefor for that purpose.

(5) Any person may, without holding a licence, have in his possession a firearm or ammunition on board an ocean going ship, or a signalling apparatus or ammunition therefor on board an aircraft or at an aerodrome, as part of the equipment of the ship, aircraft or aerodrome.

In this subsection "ocean going ship" means a boat or vessel normally engaged in navigation outside the Colony but does not include schooners engaged in the West Indian inter-colonial trade.

(6) A member of a rifle club or miniature rifle club or cadet corps approved by the Governor in Council may, without holding a licence, have in his possession a firearm and ammunition when engaged as such a member in, or in connection with, drill or target practice.

(7) A person taking part in a theatrical performance or any rehearsal thereof, or in the production of a cinematograph film, may without holding a licence, have a firearm in his possession during and for the purpose of the performance, rehearsal or production.

(8) Any person may, without holding a licence, have a firearm in his possession at an athletic meeting for the purpose of starting races at that meeting.

21. Notwithstanding any rule of law whereunder the provisions of this Ordinance do not bind the Crown, so much of the foregoing provisions of this Ordinance as relates to the purchase and acquisition, but not so much thereof as relates to the possession, of firearms and ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies shall apply to persons in the service of Her Majesty in their capacity as such, subject however to the following modifications—

(a) a person in the service of Her Majesty duly authorised in writing in that behalf may purchase or acquire such firearms or ammunition for the public service without holding a firearm licence;

(b) a person in the naval, military or air service of Her Majesty or in the police force or a prison officer shall, if he satisfies the prescribed officer on an application under section 18 of this Ordinance that he is required to purchase or acquire such a firearm or ammunition for his own use in his capacity as such, be entitled without payment of any fee to the grant of a firearm licence authorising the purchase or acquisition.

22. (1) Any police constable may demand from any person, whom he believes to be in possession of a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, the production of his firearm licence.

Production of licences.

(2) If any person in possession of such firearm or ammunition, upon whom a demand is so made, fails to produce the licence, or to permit the police constable to read the licence, or to show that he is entitled by virtue of this Ordinance to have the firearm or ammunition in his possession without holding a firearm licence, the said constable may seize and detain the firearm or ammunition, and may require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address.

(3) If any person refuses so to declare his name and address or fails to give his true name and address, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and the police constable may apprehend without warrant any person who refuses so to declare his name and address, or whom he suspects of giving a false name or address, or intending to abscond.

MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF CERTAIN FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS.

23. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, no person shall, by way of trade or business—

(a) manufacture, sell, transfer, repair, test or prove; or

(b) expose for sale or transfer, or have in his possession for sale, transfer, repair, test or proof;

any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, unless he is registered as a firearms dealer:

Provided that it shall be lawful for any marshal or bailiff acting under an order of the court, to sell by auction, expose for sale and have in his possession for sale any such firearm or ammunition without being registered as aforesaid.

(2) If any person contravenes the provisions of this section, or makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or any other person, the grant of a permit under this section, he shall, for each offence, be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Registration
of firearms
dealers.

24. (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, the Commissioner of Police shall keep a register of firearms dealers and, subject as hereinafter provided, shall enter therein the name of any person who, having or proposing to have a place of business in the Colony, applies to be registered as a firearms dealer and furnishes him with the prescribed particulars:

Provided that—

(a) the Commissioner of Police shall not register an applicant who is prohibited to be registered by order of a court in the Colony under section 29 of this Ordinance and

(b) the Commissioner of Police may refuse to register an applicant, if he is satisfied that the applicant cannot be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace, and there shall be no appeal from such refusal to register.

s. 2.

(2) On the registration of an applicant as a firearms dealer and on any variation made in the register on the application of a registered dealer there shall be payable a fee of twenty dollars:

Provided that where any such registration or variation is in respect of any person who resides within the districts specified in the second schedule hereto, the fee shall be five dollars, and

schedule.

Provided further that no fee shall be payable where—

(a) the registration is in respect of any Government officer in charge of any Government trade store, who resides in the districts specified in the second schedule hereto; or

(b) the Commissioner of Police is satisfied that the variation to be made in the register relates solely to a change of address of either the registered dealer or his place of business.

(3) If the Commissioner of Police, after giving reasonable notice to any person whose name is on the register, is satisfied that that person—

(a) is no longer carrying on business as a firearms dealer; or

(b) has ceased to have a place of business in the Colony; or

(c) cannot be permitted to continue to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace;

he shall cause the name of that person to be removed from the register.

(4) The Commissioner of Police shall also cause the name of any person to be removed from the register who makes application in writing to him requesting such removal.

(5) If any person, for the purpose of procuring the registration of himself or any other person as a firearms dealer, makes any statement which he knows to be false, he shall for each offence, be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

25. (1) The Commissioner of Police shall grant or cause to be granted to any person who is registered under the last foregoing section a certificate of registration. Certificates of registration.

(2) On or before the 1st February in each year, every person for the time being registered as a firearms dealer in any area shall— 49 of 1950, s. 3.

(a) surrender to the Commissioner of Police his certificate of registration; and

(b) apply in the prescribed form for a new certificate of registration; and First schedule.

(c) pay a fee of five dollars;

and thereupon the said Commissioner shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of the last foregoing section, grant him a new certificate of registration:

Provided that no fee shall be payable by any Government officer in charge of any Government trade store who resides in any of the districts specified in the second schedule hereto. Second schedule.

(3) If any such person as aforesaid fails to comply with all or any of the requirements of the last foregoing subsection on or before the 1st February in any year, the Commissioner of Police shall by notice in writing require him to comply therewith, and, if he fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, or within such further time as the said Commissioner may in special circumstances allow, shall cause his name to be removed from the register.

(4) In any case where the Commissioner of Police causes the name of any firearms dealer to be removed from the register, he shall by notice in writing require the dealer to surrender his certificate of registration, and if the dealer fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Registration of place of business of
dealers.

26. (1) The prescribed particulars which a person applying to be registered as a firearms dealer under section 24 of this Ordinance is required to furnish shall include particulars of every place of business at which he proposes to carry on business as a firearms dealer, and the Commissioner of Police shall, subject as hereinafter provided, enter in the register every such place of business.

(2) Every person registered as a firearms dealer who proposes to carry on business as such at any place of business which is not entered in the register, shall notify the Commissioner of Police and furnish him with such particulars as may be prescribed, and the said Commissioner shall, subject as hereinafter provided, enter that place of business in the register.

(3) The Commissioner of Police, if he is satisfied that any place of business notified to him by any person under either of the last two foregoing subsections, or any place entered as the place of business of any person in the register of firearms dealers, is a place at which that person cannot be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace, may refuse to enter that place of business in the register or remove it from the register, as the case may be.

(4) If—

(a) any person, being a registered firearms dealer, has a place of business which is not entered in the register, and carries on business as a firearms dealer at that place; or

(b) any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or for any other person, the entry of any place of business in the register of firearms dealers;

he shall for each offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Restrictions on sale,
repair, etc.,
of firearms
and ammunition.

27. (1) No person shall sell or transfer to any other person in the Colony, other than a registered firearms dealer, any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies unless that other person produces a firearm licence authorising him to purchase or acquire it or shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to purchase or acquire it without holding such a licence:

Provided that this subsection shall not prevent—

(a) a person parting with the possession of a firearm or ammunition, otherwise than in pursuance of a contract of sale or hire or by way of gift or loan, to a person who shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to have possession of the firearm or ammunition without holding such a licence; or

(b) the delivery of a firearm or ammunition by a carrier or warehouseman, or a servant of a carrier or warehouseman, in the ordinary course of his business or employment as such.

(2) Every person who sells, lets on hire, gives or lends a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies to any other person in the Colony, other than a registered firearms dealer, shall, unless that other person shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to purchase or acquire the firearm or ammunition without holding a firearm licence, comply with any instructions contained in the licence produced, and in the case of a firearm shall, within forty-eight hours from the transaction, send by registered post notice of the transaction to the prescribed officer by whom the licence was issued.

(3) No person shall undertake the repair, test or proof of a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies for any other person in the Colony, other than a registered firearms dealer as such, unless that other person produces or causes to be produced a firearm licence authorising him to have possession of the firearm or ammunition, or shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to have possession of the firearm or ammunition without holding such a licence.

(4) If any person—

(a) contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section; or

(b) with a view to purchasing or acquiring, or procuring the repair, test or proof of, a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, produces a false firearm licence or a firearm licence in which any false entry has been made, or personates a person to whom a firearm licence has been granted, or makes any false statement;

he shall, for each offence, be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

28. (1) Every person who by way of trade or business manufactures, sells or transfers firearms or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies shall provide and keep a register of transactions and shall enter or cause to be entered therein the particulars set out in forms B, C and D in the first schedule to this Ordinance.

Register of transactions in firearms.

First
schedule.
Forms B,
C and D.

(2) Every such entry shall be made on the same day that the transaction to which it relates took place, and, in the case of a sale or transfer, every such person as aforesaid shall at the time of the transaction require the purchaser or transferee, if not known to him, to furnish particulars sufficient for identification, and shall immediately enter the said particulars in the register.

(3) Every such person as aforesaid shall on demand allow any officer or non-commissioned officer of the police to enter and inspect all stock in hand, and shall on request—

- (a) by any such officer or non-commissioned officer; or
- (b) by any customs officer; or
- (c) by any district commissioner; or
- (d) by any magistrate;

produce for inspection the register so required to be kept as aforesaid.

(4) If any person—

- (a) fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section; or
- (b) knowingly makes any false entry in the register required to be kept under this section;

he shall, for each offence, be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(5) Every such person as aforesaid shall, as soon as reasonably possible after the last day of the months of March, June, September and December respectively, send, or cause to be sent, to the Commissioner of Police a copy of all entries made during the previous quarter in his register of transactions in firearms.

(6) The Governor in Council may, by regulations made under this Ordinance, vary or add to the first schedule to this Ordinance and references in this Ordinance to that schedule shall be construed as references to the schedule as for the time being so varied or added to.

First

court in case of offences
by registered firearms
dealers.

29. Where a registered firearms dealer is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance or of an offence against the enactments relating to Customs in respect of the import or export of firearms or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies, the court may order—

- (a) that the name of the registered firearms dealer be removed from the register; and

(b) that neither the dealer nor any person who acquires the business of that dealer, nor any person who took part in the management of the business and was knowingly a party to the offence, shall be registered as a firearms dealer; and

(c) that any person who, after the date of the order, knowingly employs in the management of his business the dealer convicted of the offence, or any person who was knowingly a party to the offence, shall not be registered as a firearms dealer or, if so registered, shall be liable to be removed from the register; and

(d) that any stock in hand of the business shall be disposed of by sale or otherwise in accordance with such directions as may be contained in the order:

Provided that a person aggrieved by an order made under this section may appeal against the order in the same manner as against the conviction, and the court may, if it thinks fit, suspend the operation of the order pending the appeal.

30. (1) No pawnbroker shall take in pawn from any person any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies.

Penalty for taking in pawn or selling at public auction firearms or ammunition.

(2) No person shall sell by public auction any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Ordinance applies.

(3) If any person contravenes the provisions of this section he shall, for each offence, be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

31. (1) This Part of this Ordinance applies to all firearms as defined in section 2 except air guns, air rifles or air pistols, not being of a type prescribed to be specially dangerous, and the component parts thereof and accessories thereto.

Firearms and ammunition to which this Part applies.

(2) This Part of this Ordinance applies to all ammunition as defined in section 2 except ammunition for an air gun, air rifle or air pistol.

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS AS TO FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION.

32. (1) It shall not be lawful for any person without authority of the Governor to manufacture, sell, transfer, purchase, acquire or have in his possession—

Prohibited weapons and ammunition.

(a) any firearm which is so designed or adapted that, if pressure is applied to the trigger, missiles continue to be discharged until pressure is removed from the trigger or the magazine containing the missiles is empty; or

(b) any weapon of whatever description designed or adapted for the discharge of any noxious liquid, gas or other thing; or

(c) any ammunition containing, or designed or adapted to contain, any such noxious thing.

(2) If any person contravenes the provisions of the last foregoing subsection, he shall be liable, on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

33. (1) The Governor in Council may by order—

(a) prohibit the removal of any firearms or ammunition from any part of the Colony to any other part of the Colony; or

(b) prescribe conditions subject to which any firearms or ammunition may be removed from one part of the Colony to another part of the Colony.

(2) Any such order may apply—

(a) either to all firearms and ammunition or to firearms and ammunition of such classes and descriptions as may be specified in the order;

(b) either to all modes of conveyance or to such modes of conveyance as may be so specified; and

(c) either to all persons or to such class of persons as may be specified in the order.

(3) Any police constable may without warrant search for and seize any firearms or ammunition which he has reason to believe are being removed or to have been removed in contravention of any order made under this section, and any person having the control or custody of any firearms or ammunition in course of transit shall, on demand by a police constable allow him all reasonable facilities for the examination and inspection thereof, and shall produce to him any documents in his possession relating thereto.

(4) The Governor in Council, during the continuance of any proclamation issued under Title X of Part IV of the Summary Jurisdiction (Offences) Ordinance, may by order direct the removal to a government gunpowder magazine or other place of safe custody of all arms and ammunition in the possession of any registered dealers within the area proclaimed or of such arms and ammunition only as, in the opinion of the Governor in control or prohibit removals of firearms and ammunition.

Council, are not in safe keeping or custody, or may order the closing of all shops or stores where arms and ammunition are sold and the suspension of the sale of all arms and ammunition during the continuance of the proclamation.

(5) If any person—

(a) contravenes any of the provisions of any order made under this section; or

(b) fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section;

he shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months for each firearm or parcel of ammunition in respect of which the offence is committed, or to both such fine and imprisonment; and if the offender is the owner of the firearms or the ammunition, the court may order the forfeiture of the firearms or ammunition.

34. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (6) and (7) of section 20, no person under the age of seventeen years shall purchase, hire or have in his possession any firearm or ammunition, and no person shall sell, let on hire or give possession of any firearm or ammunition to any other person whom he knows or has reasonable ground for believing to be under the age of seventeen years.

Restriction on purchase and possession of firearms by persons under the age of 17 years.

(2) If any person contravenes any provision of this section, he shall for each offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

35. (1) No person shall sell or transfer any firearm or ammunition to, or repair, prove or test any firearm or ammunition for, any other person whom he knows or has reasonable ground for believing to be drunk or of unsound mind.

Prohibition of sale, etc., of firearms to drunk or insane persons.

(2) If any person contravenes any provision of this section, he shall for each offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

36. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person who has been sentenced to penal servitude or to imprisonment for a term of three months or upwards for any offence under the Criminal Law (Offences) Ordinance shall not, at any time during a period of five years from the date of his release, have a firearm or ammunition in his possession.

Prohibition on certain persons convicted of crime purchasing or possessing firearms. Cap. 10.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person who—

Cap. 79.

(a) is the holder of a licence under the Convicts Licences Ordinance; or

Cap. 78.

(b) is subject to the supervision of the police under the Prevention of Crimes Ordinance or is subject to a recognisance to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour, a condition of which is that he shall not possess, use or carry a firearm; shall not, at any time during which he holds such licence or is so subject, have a firearm or ammunition in his possession.

(3) A person prohibited under the foregoing provisions of this section from having in his possession a firearm or ammunition may in writing petition the Governor in Council for a removal of the prohibition and if the petition is granted the said provisions of this section shall not apply to that person or shall only apply in such modified manner as the Governor in Council may direct.

(4) No person shall sell or transfer a firearm or ammunition to, or repair, test or prove a firearm or ammunition for, any person whom he knows, or has reasonable ground for believing, to be prohibited by this section from having a firearm or ammunition in his possession.

(5) If any person contravenes any provision of this section, he shall for each offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

Penalty for possessing firearms with intent to injure.

37. If any person has in his possession any firearm or ammunition with intent by means thereof to endanger life or cause serious injury to property, or to enable any other person by means thereof to endanger life or cause serious injury to property he shall, whether any injury to person or property has been caused or not, be guilty of felony and, on conviction thereof on indictment, shall be liable to penal servitude for a term not exceeding fourteen years.

Penalty for use and possession of firearms or imitation firearms in certain cases.

38. (1) If any person makes or attempts to make any use whatsoever of a firearm or imitation firearm with intent to resist or prevent the lawful apprehension or detention of himself or any other person, he shall be guilty of an offence under this subsection and, on conviction thereof on indictment, shall be liable to penal servitude for a term not exceeding fourteen years.

Where any person commits an offence under this subsection in respect of the lawful apprehension or detention of himself for any other offence committed by him, he shall be liable to the penalty provided by this subsection in addition to any penalty to which he may be sentenced for that other offence.

(2) If any person, at the time of his committing, or at the time of his apprehension for, any offence specified in the third schedule hereto, has in his possession any firearm or imitation firearm, he shall, unless he shows that he had it in his possession for a lawful object, be guilty of an offence under this subsection and on conviction thereof on indictment shall be liable to penal servitude for a term not exceeding seven years in addition to any penalty to which he may be sentenced for the first-mentioned offence.

Third
schedule.

(3) If on the trial of any person for an offence under subsection (1) of this section the jury are not satisfied that that person is guilty of that offence but are satisfied that he is guilty of an offence under subsection (2) of this section, the jury may find him guilty of the offence under the said subsection (2), and thereupon he shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

(4) Where an adult within the meaning of section 2 of the Summary Jurisdiction (Procedure) Ordinance is charged before a court of summary jurisdiction with an offence specified in the first schedule to that Ordinance and is also charged before that court with an offence under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section, then notwithstanding anything in section 60 of the said Ordinance the court shall not have power to deal summarily with the first-mentioned offence if the defendant is committed for trial in respect of the offence under this section.

Cap. 15.

(5) A firearm or imitation firearm shall, notwithstanding that it is not loaded or is otherwise incapable of discharging any shot, bullet or other missile, be deemed to be an offensive weapon or instrument for the purpose of paragraph (c) of section 222 of the Criminal Law (Offences) Ordinance and paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 227 of the said Ordinance.

Cap. 10.

(6) In this section—

(a) the expression “firearm”, means any lethal barrelled weapon of any description from which any shot, bullet or other missile can be discharged, and includes any prohibited weapon whether it is such a lethal weapon as aforesaid or not; and

(b) the expression “imitation firearm” means anything which has the appearance of being a firearm within the meaning of this section (other than such a prohibited weapon as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 32 of this Ordinance) whether it is capable of discharging any shot, bullet or other missile or not.

Smooth-bore guns with barrels less than 20 inches long, conversion of imitation firearms into firearms and defacing of distinguishing mark or number prohibited.

39. (1) No person shall—

(a) shorten the barrel of a smooth-bore gun to a length less than twenty inches; or

(b) have in his possession, custody or control a smooth-bore gun with a barrel shorter than twenty inches.

(2) No person shall convert into a firearm anything which, though having the appearance of being a firearm, is so constructed as to be incapable of discharging any missile through the barrel thereof.

(3) No person shall remove or in any way deface, or cause to be removed or defaced, any distinguishing mark or number or any part of any distinguishing mark or number, engraved or marked upon a firearm.

(4) If any person contravenes any of the foregoing provisions of this section he shall for each offence be liable on conviction or indictment to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment, or, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

PART V.—GENERAL.

40. (1) Where any person—

(a) is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance or is convicted of any offence for which he is sentenced to penal servitude or imprisonment; or

(b) has been ordered to be subject to police supervision or to enter into a recognisance to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour, a condition of which is that the offender shall not possess, use or carry a firearm;

the court before whom he is convicted or by whom the order is made may make such order as to the forfeiture or disposal of any firearm or ammunition found in his possession as the court thinks fit, and may cancel any firearm licence held by the person convicted.

(2) In any case in which the court shall cancel a firearm licence under this section—

(a) the court shall cause notice to be sent to the prescribed officer by whom the licence was granted; and Provisions as to forfeiture of firearms and cancellation of licences.

(b) the prescribed officer shall by notice in writing require the holder of the licence to surrender it; and

(c) if the holder fails to surrender the licence within twenty-one days from the date of the last mentioned notice, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

41. (1) If any magistrate or justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Ordinance has been, is being, or is about to be committed, he may grant a search warrant authorising any police constable named therein—

Power to search for and dispose of firearms and ammunition.

(a) to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein; and

(b) to seize and detain any firearm or ammunition which he may find on the premises or place, or on any such person, in respect of which or in connection with which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence under this Ordinance has been, is being, or is about to be committed; and

(c) if the premises are those of a registered firearms dealer, to examine any books relating to the business.

(2) The police constable making the search may arrest without warrant any person found on the premises whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

(3) A court of summary jurisdiction may, on the application of a police officer, order any firearm or ammunition seized and detained by any police constable under this Ordinance to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

42. Notwithstanding any provision in any Ordinance prescribing the period within which summary proceedings may be instituted, summary proceedings for an offence under this Ordinance may be instituted at any time within the period of four years after the commission of the offence:

Time for commencing summary proceedings under Ordinance.

Provided that no such proceeding shall be instituted after the expiration of the period of six months after the commission of the offence, unless they are instituted by, or by the direction of, the Attorney General.

43. Any notice required or authorised by this Ordinance to be given to any person may be sent by registered post in a letter addressed to him at his last or usual place of abode, or, in the case of a registered firearms dealer, at any place of business in respect of which he is registered.

Power of Governor in Council to make regulations.

44. (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for any of the following purposes—

(a) prescribing the form of firearm licence and of all other documents required by this Ordinance;

(b) appointing a person to be the prescribed authority for any purpose under this Ordinance and prescribing the area within which such person shall exercise authority;

(c) prescribing any other thing which under this Ordinance is to be prescribed;

(d) regulating the manner in which any person is to carry out his duties under this Ordinance;

(e) prescribing the fees to be charged and paid under this Ordinance;

(f) prescribing the rents to be charged and paid in respect of firearms and ammunition deposited in any customs warehouse under this Ordinance;

(g) prescribing distinguishing marks or numbers to be marked on firearms, or on any particular kind of firearms, in any area;

(h) generally for carrying this Ordinance into effect;

(i) prescribing the manner and conditions of disposal of any firearm or ammunition which may come into the custody or possession of the police force otherwise than by seizure or by order of a competent court.

(2) Regulations under this section may be of such a nature as to render more strict the operation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance and in such case the said provisions shall have effect as limited by regulations as aforesaid.
