

CHAPTER 199.

TRAINING INSTITUTION.

[No. II of 1877.]

[7th November, 1877.]

- Short title.      1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Training Institution Ordinance.
- Establishment of institution.      2. An institution, to be called "The Training Institution of British Guiana," shall be established at which both male and female persons may be properly trained to become efficient teachers for primary schools.
- Superintendent and masters.      3.—(1) The Governor may appoint a superintendent of the institution, and any masters considered necessary.
(2) The superintendent and masters shall receive the salaries from time to time provided for them by the Legislative Council.
- Attendants and servants.      4. The superintendent may appoint any number of attendants and servants approved of by the Governor, who shall receive the remuneration sanctioned by the Governor.
- Primary school to be attached to the institution.      5.—(1) There shall be attached to the institution a primary school, which may be used by the persons who are being trained at the institution as a practising school.
(2) The school shall be a colonial school, and provision shall be made for the instruction there of boys, girls, and infants.
- Entrance examination.      6. Before any person is admitted to be trained in the institution, he shall pass the examination prescribed for that purpose by the Director of Education.
- Residence of person admitted.      7. Every person admitted to be trained in the institution shall, except during the vacations or when sick, be bound to reside there, unless he receives permission from the superintendent, with the sanction of the Director of Education to reside elsewhere.

8.—(1) The institution shall be under the management and control of the Director of Education, whose duty it shall be to frame regulations for the following purposes, that is to say,—

Management of the institution.

(a) for regulating—

- (i) the age at which persons may be admitted into the institution, the examination to be passed before admission, and the qualifications for admission;
- (ii) the course of training, the manner and method of instruction, and the hours of study;
- (iii) the diet;
- (iv) the punishments which may be inflicted for misconduct;
- (v) the examinations which each person shall be periodically required to pass;
- (vi) the fees which shall be payable by the persons being trained therein;
- (vii) the colonial school attached to the institution;

(b) for ensuring the proper separation of the sexes; and

(c) generally, for the good government and management of the institution.

(2) The regulations shall not come into force until they have been laid before, and approved of by, the Governor and Legislative Council, by whom they may be altered or amended, and the regulations, as approved by the Governor and Legislative Council, shall be published in the Gazette and thereupon be binding on all persons concerned.

9. No person shall be finally expelled from the institution until the expulsion of that person has been approved of by the Director of Education.

Expulsion from the institution.

10. The superintendent shall submit to the Governor, to be laid before the Governor and Legislative Council, in the month of January in each year, a full report of the working of the institution, including the working of the colonial school attached thereto, and of the progress made by the persons who have been trained at the institution during the then preceding year.

Annual report of the institution.

