CHAPTER 119.

HUCKSTERS LICENSING AND CONTROL.

An Ordinance to provide for the licensing and control of hucksters. 28 of 1936.

[1ST JANUARY, 1937].

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Hucksters Licensing and Control Ordinance. Short title.

2. In this Ordinance unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

“ goods, wares or merchandise ” means any article, old or new and includes subject to this Ordinance any provisions or refreshments or anything other than wine, malt liquor or spirituous liquor for the sale of which a licence is or may be required by law ;

“ huckster ” means any person who travels on foot or with a horse or other beast bearing or drawing burden or with a cycle or motor vehicle and goes from place to place or to other men's houses carrying to sell or exposing for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, and includes any person who travels by any means of locomotion to any place in which he does not usually reside or carry on business and there sells or exposes for sale any goods, wares or merchandise in or at any house, shop, room, shed, stall or yard, or other place whatever owned, hired or used by him for that purpose ;

“ licence ” means a licence granted under this Ordinance ;

“ market ” means a market under the control of a municipality or local authority constituted under the Local Government Ordinance or such other place as may from time to time be declared a market by the Governor in Council for the purposes of this Ordinance ;

“ motor vehicle ” means any mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on roads and includes a motor cycle with or without a side car or van ;

“ officer ” means any Government officer for the time being performing duties in relation to District Administration, and includes any police officer or constable or any revenue officer of rivers, creeks, crown lands and forests.

Cap. 150.

Huckster's
licence.
Schedule.

3. No person shall act as a huckster without a licence which shall be non-transferable duly issued to him by an officer in one of the forms set out in the schedule to this Ordinance the duty on which shall be as follows :—

Every huckster—

- | | | | |
|---|--------|----|-----|
| (a) who travels on foot or with a man-propelled vehicle, or cycle, the sum of | | $ | 4 |
| (b) who travels with a horse or other beast bearing or drawing burden, the sum of | | | 24 |
| (c) who travels with a motor vehicle the sum of... | | | 120 |

Provided that—

(1) No huckster's licence shall be required when the goods are exposed for sale in any room or stall in a market or for the sale of bread, cakes, biscuits, pastry, ice, sweet-meats, jams, jellies, fresh fish, game, poultry, eggs, milk or vegetables grown in the Colony or of fresh fruit or coconut oil or charcoal or firewood or for the sale of any produce of land occupied or owned by the seller or his principal, or for the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise by the real worker or maker thereof on his own behalf or by any person selling or seeking orders for goods, wares or merchandise to or from persons who are dealers therein and who buy to sell again.

(2) No licence shall have any force within ten miles of any claims located and worked under the Mining Ordinance, or the Mining Regulations for the time being in force or shall entitle the holder thereof to carry on the trade or business of a huckster within any area aforesaid. Cap. 196.

(3) No licence shall be required by anyone who sells only copies of the Bible, the Koran, the sacred books or any portion thereof of any recognised East Indian religion, or any other literature of a religious character.

(4) If the inhabitants of any rural area by petition satisfy the Governor in Council that owing to the remoteness of their dwellings from any shop or trading centre they stand in need of visits to their area by hucksters it shall be competent for the Governor in Council to authorise an officer to issue licences of the character set out in subparagraphs (b) and (c) of this section solely for use within such area, at a rate of duty not less than one-eighth of the amount of duty therein prescribed.

4. Every licence shall whenever issued be granted only on payment in full of the duty and shall expire on the 31st December in each year. Period of licence.

5. Any person who forges or counterfeits or makes use of any forged or counterfeited licence under this Ordinance knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited shall be liable upon conviction by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding six months or to both such imprisonment and fine. Forging or counterfeiting licences.

6. (1) Every huckster shall keep his name, the number of his licence and the words "licensed huckster" visibly and legibly painted upon every box or other package and every vehicle used for the carriage of his goods. Provisions to be observed by hucksters.

(2) A huckster shall not permit to be used, or lend his licence to any person either for or without reward.

(3) No person not having in force a licence under this Ordinance in his own real name shall use the words "licensed huckster" or any words importing that he is a huckster or a licensed huckster or trades with or under the colour of a licence granted to any other person.

Any person who contravenes any of the foregoing provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance :

Provided that anyone in the bonâ fide employment of the owner of a licence may lawfully make use of, trade and act with and under that licence for the exclusive benefit of the owner, if the name of the person so employed is endorsed upon the licence by an officer or by a magistrate, in which last case the magistrate shall, within seven days thereafter, send or deliver to the officer the particulars of the endorsement.

Fine for huckstering without licence or not producing licence.

7. (1) If any person does any act for which a licence is required by this Ordinance—

(a) Without having a proper licence in force in that behalf, or

(b) Without immediately producing upon demand by any person a proper licence granted to him, and then in force, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) In any proceedings against any person under this section, it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant did trade as a huckster without having in force a proper licence and it shall not be necessary further or otherwise to describe the offence.

Demand for production of huckster's licence.

8. (1) Any officer may demand from any person huckstering or exposing for sale any goods, wares or merchandise his licence therefor, in any case in which a licence in respect thereof is or may be required, and if the person does not forthwith produce the licence the officer may seize and detain the goods, wares, and merchandise until the penalty of forfeiture incurred by the person huckstering or offering for sale the goods, wares or merchandise is paid together with all costs of removal.

(2) If the penalty or forfeiture is not paid upon conviction together with all costs of removal, the goods, wares and merchandise together with the motor vehicle, carriage or cart (together with the animal drawing it) or cycle as the case may be shall be liable and leviable for the amount thereof with costs and shall be sold by order of the convicting magistrate, and if the proceeds of the sale are not sufficient for the payment of the penalty or forfeiture with costs the party convicted shall be liable therefor and the payment shall be recovered by distress.

Search of huckster's pack.

9. (1) Any officer may at any time open and inspect any pack, box, bag, barrel, trunk, case or other container, and may stop and inspect any vehicle in which a huckster carries his goods, wares or merchandise and any huckster refusing to allow an officer to open and inspect the pack, box, bag, barrel, trunk, case or other container or to stop or inspect the vehicle or attempting to do so shall be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) Any huckster so acting may be apprehended and detained with the pack, box, bag, barrel, trunk, case or other container or vehicle and the goods, wares or merchandise therein, until he can be brought before a magistrate.

10. Any person who assaults, obstructs, hinders or molests an officer in the execution of his duty under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence.

Assaulting officer in execution of duty.

11. Any person who, in any part of the Colony, does any act for which a licence may not be granted for that part of the Colony though a licence is required elsewhere in the Colony shall be guilty of an offence and shall in addition to any other penalty be liable to a penalty equal to the amount of the duty for a licence to do that act.

Acting without licence.

12. All articles ordered to be sold by virtue of any of the preceding provisions of this Ordinance shall be publicly sold by some police officer or constable, by direction of the magistrate, for cash to the highest bidder, and the magistrate shall cause notice of the intended sale to be affixed upon a board in his court room at least one week before the day of sale, unless the article seized is of a perishable nature in which case the same shall be sold at the time and in the manner directed by the magistrate ; and the surplus proceeds of every sale held under this section, after payment of any penalty awarded against the owner of the article sold, together with all costs and expenses, shall be paid to the owner if he is known, and if he is not known they shall accrue due and shall be paid to the Financial Secretary by the magistrate for the public use of the Colony.

Sale of articles ordered to be sold under this Ordinance.

13. Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance for which no special penalty has been provided shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalties.

14. Every offence or penalty under this Ordinance may be prosecuted and enforced under the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinances.

Offences punishable under the Summary Jurisdiction Ordinances.
