

Published on the 17th day of July, 1967

No. 8 of 1967

GUYANA

REGULATIONS

Made Under

THE FACTORIES ORDINANCE

(Chapter 115)

UNDER SECTIONS 26 AND 29 OF THE FACTORIES ORDINANCE, AND BY VIRTUE AND IN EXERCISE OF ALL OTHER POWERS ENABLING HIM IN THAT BEHALF, THE FOLLOWING REGULATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Hours of Work (Printing Trade Workers) Regulations, 1967.

2. In these Regulations—

“printing trade worker” means any person employed in a printery;

“printery” means any place or premises in which printing by letterpress, lithography, photogravure, or other similar process, or bookbinding is carried on by way of trade or for purposes of gain or incidental to another business so carried on, but shall not include copying by office typewriter or office duplicating machine.

3. (1) Notwithstanding the number of hours of work prescribed in paragraph (a) of Regulation 16 of the Factories (Health and Welfare) Regulations, the number of hours which may normally be worked by a printing trade worker employed on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis shall not exceed forty-two in any week.

(2) The number of hours which may normally be worked by a printing trade worker employed otherwise than on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis shall not exceed eight in any day.

4. Subject to the provisions of Regulation 17 of the Factories (Health and Welfare) Regulations, no printing trade worker employed on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis shall in any week be employed for more than twenty hours in excess of the hours prescribed by paragraph (1) of Regulation 3 of these Regulations.

5. Every hour or part thereof worked by a printing trade worker in excess of normal hours, shall constitute overtime.

6. (1) Payment in respect of work on Sundays, Christmas Day, the day after Christmas Day if Christmas falls on a Sunday, Eid-ul-Ahza Day or, if that day is a Sunday the following day, Phagwah Day or, if that day is a Sunday, the following day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, that is to say the 1st May, or if that day is a Sunday the following day, shall be at the rate of double the hourly rate of pay.

(2) Payment for overtime in respect of work on any day or in any week in excess of the normal hours of work, or in respect of work on any public holiday, other than as specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation, within the meaning of the Public Holidays Ordinance*, shall be at the rate of one and a half times the hourly rate of pay.

7. Any person who commits a breach of these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence and shall on summary conviction thereof be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

Made this 11th day of July 1967.

D. J. G. ROSE,
Governor-General.

(M.P. 18/345 (1))

*Cap. 61.