Miscellaneous

Recommendation 23

29. The Committee recommends that Standing Orders Nos. 82 to 85 be accepted as proposed.

Recommendation 24

30. The Committee recommends that Draft Standing Order No. 86 be amended as follows -

“The Speaker may grant a general permission to the representative of any media to attend sitting of the Assembly under such rules as the National Assembly may make from time to time for that purpose. If such rules are contravened, such permission may be revoked.”.

Recommendation 25

31. The Committee recommends that Draft Standing Orders 85 to 89 be accepted as proposed.

Ombudsman's Report for Debate in the National Assembly

Recommendation 26

32. The Committee notes that under existing provisions either the Government or the Opposition can present a motion for debate. It, therefore, recommends that no special provision be made for a debate on the Ombudsman's Report in the National Assembly.

Bills to be certified by Attorney General for Constitutional Consistency

Recommendation 27

33. The Committee recommends that there be no special provision for Bills to be certified by the Attorney General for Constitutional consistency, as it is the duty of the Attorney General to ensure Constitutional consistency and, even if she/he does, a court might not agree.

Other Issues

Recommendation 28

34. The Committee recommends that the Clerk be authorized to –

- (a) render the language of the Standing Orders Gender Neutral;
- (b) make corrections of minor errors and discrepancies; and
- (c) renumber paragraphs in numerical sequence.

Coming into operation of the Standing Orders

Recommendation 29

35. The Committee recommends that these Standing Orders take effect from the commencement of the new Parliament.

Recommendation 30

36. The Committee recommends that the Legislative Bodies Evidence Act, Chapter 1:08 and such other material as the Clerk considers appropriate be appended to the Standing Orders.

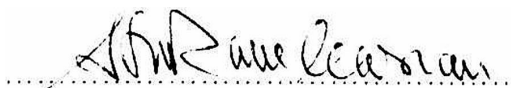

Consistency with Evidence Act

37. The Committee did not take action on this recommendation. It was satisfied that where complicated or contentious issues relating to the law of evidence arise, a Committee might seek legal advice from the Attorney General's Chambers or request the presence of a lawyer or from a lawyer in private practice.

Report of the Committee

38. The Committee has agreed that the foregoing be its Report to the National Assembly.

39. The Report is duly submitted.
