GOVERNMENT'S BUSINESS

MOTIONS

1. SUPPORT FOR THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE OF THE COOPERATIVE
REPUBLIC OF GUYANA REAFFIRMING THE SOVEREIGNTY OF GUYANA
OVER ITS INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED TERRITORY

Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation to move the following motion:

WHEREAS the Co-operative Republic of Guyana is a sovereign State with exclusive rights and jurisdiction over its territory, including the region of Essequibo, as recognized under international law;

AND WHEREAS the limit of Guyana's land boundary with Venezuela was determined by an Arbitral Award of 1899, which, according to the 1897 Treaty of Washington signed between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and the United States of Venezuela, constitutes a full and final settlement of the land boundary between British Guiana (now Guyana) and Venezuela;

AND WHEREAS the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela arbitrarily and unilaterally sought, from 1962, to challenge and impugn the 1899 Arbitral Award, thus, giving rise to a controversy over the validity of the Award;

AND WHEREAS the Geneva Agreement of 1966 was concluded among the Parties to seek a peaceful and legal solution to Venezuela's contention, in conformity with which and by the powers conferred upon him by Article IV(2) of the said Agreement, the United Nations Secretary-General chose the International Court of Justice as the means which is now to be used to arrive at a complete and binding solution after twenty seven (27) years of a Good Offices Process and one (1) year of enhanced mediation;

AND WHEREAS for that entire period the Government of Venezuela was never able to prove its claim of nullity of the 1899 Arbitral Award, but instead embarked on a pattern of intimidation, threat, economic aggression and neo-colonialism against Guyana, using its superior military, economic and political power to try to weaken and force Guyana to agree to the nullification of the 1899 Arbitral Award and the relinquishing of its land and maritime territory;

AND WHEREAS in accordance with the decision of the United Nations Secretary General, the matter is currently before the Court;

AND WHEREAS the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela raised two preliminary objections to the Court's adjudication of the matter; first challenging the existence of the Court's jurisdiction then secondly, challenging the exercise of that jurisdiction, both matters of which were dispensed with by the Court which in its judgement of December 18, 2020 affirmed its jurisdiction based on the provisions of the Geneva Agreement and in its judgement of April 6, 2023 rejected the preliminary objection of Venezuela;

AND WHEREAS in defiance of international law and the decisions of the Court the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela in December 2023 first sought to hold a referendum with the purported intention to oust the jurisdiction of the Court in resolving the matter, annex Guyana's territory in the Essequibo region and grant Venezuelan citizenship and identification cards to Guyanese citizens in that region;

AND WHEREAS the Government and people of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana deeming this purported referendum to be contemptuous of the legal process prevailing before the International Court of Justice and repugnant to the accepted principles, tenets, norms and practices of international law, sought and was granted a protective order from the Court, wherein the Court by its Order of December 1, 2023 ordered Venezuela to refrain from any action that would modify the status quo in the disputed territory, where Guyana currently administers and exercises control, and also ordered both parties to refrain from any action that might aggravate or extend the dispute;

AND WHEREAS in further defiance of the Court and the rule of international law, the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela conducted the referendum, subsequently enacted domestic legislation purportedly to give effect to the results of the referendum, by establishing the state of ‘Guayana Esequiba’ and, in January 2025 announced its intention to hold elections for a governor and legislative council for this said state which is Guyana’s Essequibo Region;

AND WHEREAS the Government of Guyana on March 6, 2025, made a further request to the Court for the indication of provisional measures against Venezuela;

AND WHEREAS the Court in considering that Guyana’s request of 6 March 2025 is a request for the modification of the Court’s Order of 1 December 2023, indicated that since the delivery of its Order of 1 December 2023, the serious risk of Venezuela acquiring and exercising control and administration over the territory in dispute has significantly increased. In particular, the adoption by Venezuela of legislative measures and decrees concerning the territory in dispute, and the announcement of the preparation for and conduct of elections in that territory, which Guyana currently administers and over which it exercises control, “represent grave developments which constitute a change in the situation”. On these bases, the Court modified its Order of 1 December 2023, as Guyana requested, by further specifying its scope;

AND WHEREAS the Court by its binding Order dated May 1, 2025, reaffirmed Guyana’s sovereign rights and directed Venezuela not to take any action that would alter the status quo, including the holding of electoral or other administrative activities in Guyana’s Essequibo region;

AND WHEREAS the Government of Venezuela has, in flagrant defiance of the Court’s Order, announced and undertaken steps toward holding elections and extending state authority over parts of Guyana’s territory, constituting an act of aggression and a breach of international law;

BE IT RESOLVED:

That this National Assembly:

1. Recalling its Motion passed on November 6, 2023, in reaffirming the recognition of the 1899 Arbitral Award and the 1966 Geneva Agreement;
2. Unequivocally reaffirms the sovereignty, territorial integrity, independence and indissolubility of the Co-operative Republic of Guyana;
3. Strongly condemns the actions of the Government of Venezuela in defiance of the May 1, 2025 Order of the ICJ and views such actions as a violation of international law and a threat to regional peace and stability;
4. Expresses its full support for the Government of Guyana in its efforts to protect and defend Guyana's territorial integrity through peaceful and lawful means, including continued recourse to the International Court of Justice;
5. Calls upon the international community to support Guyana in upholding the rule of law and the binding decisions of the International Court of Justice; and
6. Directs that copies of this Resolution be transmitted to the Secretaries-General of the United Nations, the Commonwealth, the Organisation of American States, the Organisation of African, Caribbean and Pacific States, the Heads of State and Government of the Caribbean Community as well as other relevant international bodies.

*11. NATURAL GAS FLARING AT THE ESSO EXPLORATION AND PRODUCTION
GUYANA LIMITED

Mr. David Patterson, M.P. to move the following motion:

WHEREAS Esso Exploration and Production Guyana Limited (EEPGL) was on June 1, 2017, granted an Environmental Permit, No. 20160705-EEDPF, to undertake Phase 1 of the Liza Development Project (Liza 1) which included, the use of a Floating Production, Storage, and Offloading (FPSO) vessel "to process, store and offload the recovered oil during production operations within the Stabroek Block";

*Not to be proceeded with at this Sitting

AND WHEREAS the Liza 1 Permit (Clause 1.10) enjoined the Permit Holder, EEPGL, to “Employ effective operational and maintenance systems on all aspects of the facility whose failure could impact the environment...”;

AND WHEREAS the Liza 1 Permit (Clause 3.6) expressly prohibits flaring and venting; with exceptions being made for “tank flashing emission, standing/working/breathing losses” and flaring related to the startup of the FPSO, emergencies or during periods of maintenance;

AND WHEREAS EEPGL has routinely been engaged in flaring in direct contravention of the terms of the Liza 1 Permit issued and acknowledged, and as a result, has caused, and is causing substantial damage to the environment and the credibility of the Liza 1 Development Project;

AND WHEREAS calculations based upon reported EEPGL’s production data shows that zero flaring, except for the small amount allowed for pilot flaring, may be achieved by reducing oil production by approximately 15,000 bopd;

AND WHEREAS according to Clause 13.1 in the Liza 1 and Liza 2 Permits, “The Environmental Protection Agency reserves the right to review and amend the conditions attached to this Permit”,

BE IT RESOLVED:

That this National Assembly expresses its dissatisfaction, that all reasonable measures have not been taken or are being taken to prevent the flaring of gas as currently exists, and which reported by EEPGL to be 16 million cubic feet, per day (mcf) at the designed maximum safe oil production limit of 120,000 barrels oil, per day (bopd).

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

That the National Assembly calls on the Government of Guyana:

1. To direct Esso Exploration and Production Guyana Limited to abide by the terms and conditions of the Liza 1 Permit issued on June 1, 2017;
2. To request that the Environmental Protection Agency takes all reasonable measures to ensure compliance including, EEPGL achieving zero flaring at the Liza 1 Project through reduction of oil production rates; and suspension of same Liza 1 Permit if zero flaring is not met, until it is satisfied that all reasonable and lawful efforts are being made to ensure that there is no flaring of gas as has occurred over the past several weeks; and
3. To request that the Liza 1 and Liza 2 Permits be immediately amended by the EPA to become consistent with the updated conditions in the Payara Permit, relative to flaring.

WHEREAS, Guyanese citizens, Joel Henry, Isiah Henry and Haresh Singh, all under the age of 20 years old, from the village of N0. 3 Village, West Coast Berbice, were brutally, barbarically and horrifically killed, and the bodies found at or near the Cotton Tree Back Dam in the Mahaica/ Berbice Region No. 5;

*Not to be proceeded with at this Sitting

AND WHEREAS, the period September 6 to 9, 2020, will go down in the history of our country as the period when these unspeakable crimes left the nation numb and in a state of shock and sadness;

AND WHEREAS, these brutal, senseless, barbaric, depraved and horrific killings have caused untold pain, agony, grief, anguish, anger and despair to the surviving family members, fellow villagers and the entire Guyanese Community;

AND WHEREAS, these brutal and horrific killings have evoked unequivocal condemnation from Guyanese, living in Guyana and in the diaspora;

AND WHEREAS, the diplomatic community and civil society have also unequivocally condemned these brutal, barbaric and horrific killings;

AND WHEREAS, Parliament, of which the National Assembly is a part of the supreme legislative forum of our Republic wherein the people's elected representatives discuss and determine matters of national interest and is obliged to consider the grave threats to the public welfare and public security;

AND WHEREAS, Article 138(1) of the Constitution of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana prescribes that no person shall be deprived of his life intentionally save in the execution of the sentence of a court in respect of an offence under the Laws of Guyana of which he has been convicted;

AND WHEREAS, to date, these horrific deaths, which are of public importance, concern, and welfare, remain substantially unresolved.

18.

BE IT RESOLVED:

That the National Assembly recommends to the Government to procure and finance the assistance of expert and competent professionals who can resolve these cases;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

That the National Assembly condemns the killing of the three Citizens aforementioned, and extends sincerest condolences to the families of the deceased; and
