

THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE — 21ST FEBRUARY, 1978
LEGAL SUPPLEMENT — B

GUYANA

No. 1 of 1978

PROCLAMATION

L. S.

By His Excellency CDE. ARTHUR CHUNG,
President of Guyana and Commander-in-
Chief of the armed forces of Guyana.

A. Chung,
President.

CONSTITUTION OF THE ORDERS OF GUYANA

By virtue and in exercise of all powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby proclaim that the Constitution of the Orders of Guyana shall be amended in the manner and to the extent set out hereunder —

Section

Amendment

19. Substitute for subsection (2) the following subsection —

“(2) The Cacique’s Crown of Honour may be awarded to —

(a) any citizen of Guyana who has either —

(i) rendered service of an exceptionally high quality beyond the normal call of duty in the public

Section

Amendment

service, local government services, social and voluntary services, industry or trade unions, or in any other area of public service;

(ii) achieved excellence of national or international standing and recognition in the arts, professions, sciences or sport or in any other area of activity;

(b) any institution, organisation, body corporate or group of persons deserving of official recognition for its contribution to the national economy through a substantial and sustained increase in production or in export earnings or for its achievement of a significant advance, leading to increased efficiency, in the application of technology to a production or development process in industry or for any other significant achievement or contribution to national development."

20. Substitute for section 20 the following section —

"20. The award of the Cacique's Crown of Honour —

(a) to a person shall entitle him to have the suffix C.C.H. placed after his name and to wear as a decoration the insignia and ribbon prescribed for recipients of the Cacique's Crown of Honour in the rules of the Order;

(b) under section 19(2) (b) shall not be subject to the limitations imposed by sections 25 and 26 and shall entitle the recipient to display during the ensuing period of five years an emblem of the award, in particular, on the packaging of, or on, goods produced by it, on office stationery, in its advertisements and on articles used by employees of the recipient, in the course of their duties."

21. Substitute for subsection (2) the following subsection —

"(2) The Golden Arrow of Achievement may be awarded to —

(a) any citizen of Guyana who has either —

(i) performed an outstanding and specific act of service or achievement of an exceptional nature;
or

(ii) given long and dedicated service of a consistently high standard in responsible offices, local government services, social and voluntary services, industry or trade unions, or in any other area of public service;

Section

Amendment

- (b) any institution, organisation, body corporate or group of persons deserving of official recognition for its contribution to the national economy through a substantial and sustained increase in production or in export earnings or for its achievement of a significant advance, leading to increased efficiency, in the application of technology to a production or development process in industry or for any other significant achievement or contribution to national development.”

22. Substitute for section 22 the following section —

“22. The award of the Golden Arrow of Achievement —

- (a) to a person shall entitle him to have the suffix A.A. placed after his name and to wear as a decoration the insignia and ribbon prescribed for recipients of the Golden Arrow of Achievement in the rules of the Order;
- (b) under section 21(2) (b) shall not be subject to the limitations imposed by sections 25 and 26 and shall entitle a recipient to display during the ensuing period of five years an emblem of the award, in particular, on the packaging of, or on, goods produced by it, on office stationery, in its advertisements and on articles used by employees of the recipient, in the course of their duties.”

23. Substitute for subsection (2) the following subsection —

“(2) The Medal of Service may be awarded to —

- (a) any citizen who has given service of a special quality deserving of official recognition or has given not less than ten years' service with exceptional dedication in the public service, in local government services, in industry or the trade unions or in any other area of service to the community;
- (b) any institution, organisation, body corporate or group of persons deserving of official recognition for its contribution to the national economy through a substantial and sustained increase in production or in export earnings or for its achievement of a significant advance, leading to increased efficiency, in the application of technology to a production or development process in industry or for any other significant achievement or contribution to national development.”

Section

Amendment

24. Substitute for section 24 the following section —

“24. The award of the Medal of Service —

- (a) to a person shall entitle him to have the suffix M.S. placed after his name and to wear as a decoration the insignia and ribbon presented for recipients;
- (b) under section 23(2) (b) shall not be subject to the limitations imposed by sections 25 and 26 and shall entitle a recipient to display during the ensuing period of five years an emblem of the award, in particular, on the packaging of, or on, goods produced by it, on office stationery, in its advertisements and on articles used by employees of the recipient, in the course of their duties.”

Given under my hand and the Seal of Guyana at Guyana House this 21st day of February, 1978, in the eighth year of the Republic.

By His Excellency's Command.

J. A. Orderson,
Secretary to the Office of the President.