EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill seeks to amend the Income Tax Act, Cap. 81:01.

Clause 2 of the Bill seeks to amend sections 8 (1) and (4) of the Principal Act to increase the income tax threshold from one million two hundred thousand dollars per annum to one million five hundred and sixty thousand dollars per annum.

Clause 3 seeks to amend the Principal Act by substituting for the current section 20, a new section 20. This amendment provides for:

- (a) an increase in the annual threshold deduction from one million two hundred thousand or one third of an individual's total income from all sources to one million, five hundred and sixty thousand dollars or one third of an individual's total income from all sources;
- (b) for one parent to be allowed to claim for each child ten thousand dollars monthly of their income as non-taxable;
- (c) for those individuals who have a second job in addition to their full-time primary job, the first fifty thousand dollars of income earned monthly from their second job would be non-taxable; and
- (d) individuals who earn overtime for work beyond their normal working hours to be allowed the first fifty-thousand dollars of their overtime non-taxable.

Clause 4 seeks to amend section 36 of the Principal Act to provide for the reduction of the personal income tax rate from twenty-eight percent per annum to twenty-five percent per annum, and increase the income tax band from two million four hundred thousand dollars per annum to three million one hundred and twenty thousand dollars per annum.

Clause 5 seeks to amend section 36A of the Principal Act to make provision for the reduction of the personal income tax rate from forty percent per annum to thirty-five percent per annum to be applied on the incomes of individuals in excess of three million one hundred and twenty thousand dollars per annum.

Clause 6 seeks to amend section 60 of the Principal Act to increase the income tax threshold from one million two hundred thousand dollars per annum to one million five hundred and sixty thousand dollars per annum.
