DISCIPLINE

Professional misconduct.

21. (1) A pharmacist or a practising pharmacist who commits professional misconduct shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

Investigations
by the Council.

22. (1) The Council may of its own motion or upon the complaint of a person aggrieved, cause an investigation to be made of the conduct of a pharmacist or a practising pharmacist.

(2) A person aggrieved by the conduct of a pharmacist or practising pharmacist who desires to complain of such conduct shall furnish to the Council his complaint in writing.

(3) The Council shall notify the pharmacist or practising pharmacist of the nature of complaint or matter and call upon him to state in writing before a specified day (which day shall allow a reasonable interval for the purpose), any explanation or make representation he may wish to make in respect of the complaint.

(4) Having regard to any explanation or representation made by the pharmacist or practising pharmacist, the Council may -

(a) determine that no enquiry shall be held; or 15

- (b) conduct such enquiry into the matter as the Council may consider appropriate.

Enquiry.

23. (1) In the conduct of a formal enquiry, the Council shall serve on the pharmacist or practising pharmacist against whom formal enquiry is to be instituted, a notice which shall -

- (a) specify in the form of a charge, the matter into which the enquiry is to be held; and
(b) state the date, time and place at which the enquiry is proposed to be held.

(2) Except with the consent of the pharmacist or practising pharmacist an enquiry shall not be fixed for a date earlier than twenty-eight days after the date of notice of enquiry.

(3) In any case where there is a complaint, a copy of the complaint shall be sent to the pharmacist or practising pharmacist with the notice of enquiry.

(4) The pharmacist or practising pharmacist shall be entitled to receive free copies or to be allowed access to any documentary evidence relied on for the purpose of the enquiry.

(5) The pharmacist or practising pharmacist shall have the right to be represented by an attorney at law in any formal enquiry instituted against him.

(6) Where witnesses are examined by the Council, the pharmacist or practising pharmacist shall be given an opportunity of attending and of putting questions to the witnesses.

(7) The pharmacist or practising pharmacist shall be permitted to give evidence, call witnesses and make submission orally or in writing on his own behalf.

(8) If at the conclusion of the hearing the Council is of the opinion that the pharmacist or practising pharmacist is not guilty of misconduct in a professional respect, he shall be immediately notified of its findings, but if the pharmacist or practising pharmacist is found guilty of any such charge, the Council shall proceed under section 24.

Disciplinary proceedings.

24. (1) If in any proceedings referred to in sections 22 and 23, the pharmacist or practising pharmacist is found to be guilty of misconduct in a professional respect the Council may after consultation with the Minister -

- (a) censure him;
- (b) suspend his registration for any period not exceeding one year;
- (c) direct the Registrar to remove his name from the register.

(2) Where the name of any person is removed from the Register, the Council may in writing require such person to return to the Registrar his certificate of registration and such person shall comply with this requirement; failure to do so shall constitute an offence under this Act.

(3) Where any pharmacist or practising pharmacist has been suspended by the Council for any period, it shall be an offence for him to engage in the practise of pharmacy during the period of suspension.

Power of the Council to remove names from Register.

(25) The Council may remove from the Register the name of 17

a pharmacist or practising pharmacist -

- (a) who is found guilty of professional misconduct as provided in section 24(1);
- (b) whose name has been ordered to be so removed by the High Court;
- (c) who has had his qualification for registration withdrawn or cancelled by the university, college or other body by which it was awarded;
- (d) who has requested the Council in writing so to do.

(2) A suspension of the registration of a pharmacist or practising pharmacist pursuant to this Act shall, while the suspension continues in force, have the same effect as a removal of the name of the suspended person from the Register.

Appeals against refusal to register, or removal of name, etc.

26. Any person who is aggrieved by the refusal of the Council to grant him registration (including temporary registration), by the removal of his name from the Register, or by the decision of the Council to censure him or suspend his registration may, within three months after the date on which notice is given to him by the Council appeal the Council's decision to a judge of the High Court who shall give such directions in the matter as he may think proper, including a direction as to the costs of the appeal.

Removal from, and restoration to, registers of names generally.

27. (1) Where the Council directs the removal from any register of the name of any person, or of any other entry, the name of that person or entry shall be published in the Gazette.

(2) If the Council thinks fit in any case, it may direct the Registrar to restore to any of the registers any name or entry previously removed therefrom, either without fee or on payment of the stipulated fee and the Registrar shall restore the name accordingly.

(3) Copies of the Registers for the time being published in the Gazette in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be prima facie evidence in any court that the persons and the qualifications therein specified are registered.

(4) The provisions of this Part shall, in so far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to the other persons registered under this Act.

PART X REGULATIONS

Regulations.

28. (1) The Minister may after consultation with the Council, make regulations for anything to be prescribed under this Act or which are otherwise necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may relate to -

- (a) the procedure for the conduct of an election of members to the Council, of those members referred to in paragraph 1(f) of the First Schedule;
- (b) any matter ancillary to the provisions of this Act with regard to issuing, suspending and reinstating any registration;
- (c) the maintenance and inspection of Registers;
- (d) governing standards of practice for the pharmacy profession;

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

PART I of the Bill gives the short title and contains the definitions of a number words.

PART II establishes the Pharmacy Council and sets out its functions which include the regulation of the practice of pharmacy and the registration of pharmacists, practising pharmacists, pharmacy assistants and others.

PART III provides for the registers of pharmacists and practising pharmacists, the inspection and alteration of the registers, the registration of higher qualifications, annual registration of practising pharmacists and the publication of lists of practising pharmacists.

PART IV deals with the granting of a licence for the temporary registration as a practising pharmacist for a period of twelve months.

PART V provides for the registration of pharmacy assistants to perform pharmacy services. A person is qualified to be registered who has completed a course of training approved by the Council and passed the approved examination.

PART VIII provides penalties for offences. A person who procures registration under the Act by false or fraudulent representation commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

PART IX provides for disciplining of a pharmacist or practising pharmacist who commits professional misconduct. There is procedure for the conduct of an investigation in which the pharmacist or practising pharmacist is given an opportunity to make representations. If he is found guilty one of the penalties is the removal of his name from the register whereupon he loses the right to practise his profession but he may appeal against any decision to the High Court.

PART X gives the Minister the power to make regulations after consultation with the Council. Regulations made may relate to the procedure for the conduct of an election of members to the Council, the maintenance and inspection of the Registers, standards for the pharmacy profession and payment of fees.

The First Schedule provides for the composition of the Council. There shall be nine members including the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman. Of the nine members six shall be practising pharmacists who shall be elected in accordance with the regulations.

Minister of Health.
