EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill seeks to amend twenty two sections and to insert one new section in the Local Authorities (Elections) Act, Cap. 28:03. The amendments seek to clear the way for the holding of local government elections in December.

Clause 2 of the Bill widens the definition of election officer to include Deputy Chief Election Officer, Assistant Chief Election Officer and Deputy Returning Officer. It also widens the definition of identification card to include a card issued during the continuous registration process and inserts a definition of by-election.

Clause 4 amends section 10(2) of the Act by stating that a vagrant is deemed not to be ordinarily resident anywhere.

Clause 5 substitutes a new subsection (1) to section 11, which states that the preliminary list of voters should be extracted from the National Register of Registrants and not from the 1992 official list of electors.

Clause 7 amends section 15(1)(b) of the Act to provide that an applicant for registration as a voter shall produce a birth certificate or a valid passport.

Clause 8 amends section 18(1)(b) to include the Deputy Chief Election Officer and the Assistant Chief Election Officer as persons who are authorized to enter polling stations.

Clause 9 amends section 20(9) of the Act substituting for the Minister the Commission, with the power to allow a Deputy Registrar to hear and determine applications for claims and objections.

Clause 10 amends section 40(2) of the Act removing bankruptcy as a disqualification for election as a councillor or for continuation in the office of a councillor.

Clauses 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 21 and 23 amend sections 41(1), 46(1), 47, 48(1), 49, 50(1), 51, 53(1), 63 and 65 respectively to extend the period of time in respect of –

- (a) submission of lists for nomination;
- (b) examination of lists, informing of representatives of any defects,
- (c) corrections to lists;
- (d) application for approval of symbols and allocation of symbols;
- (e) approval of lists;
- (f) appeal against refusal of approval of lists;
- (g) publication of lists;
- (h) notice of withdrawal of candidate;
- (i) application for the appointment of proxies (to be received by the returning officer not later than the tenth day before election day); and
- (j) notice of cancellation of proxy (to be received by the returning officer not later than the tenth day before election day).

Clause 19 amends the Act by inserting a new section 53A which makes provision for a by-election of a councillor.

Clause 20 amends section 62(3)(b) reducing the number of persons that a proxy can vote for from three to two.

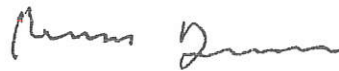

Clause 24 amends section 74F of the Act as follows –

- (a) by substituting for subsection (3) a new subsection providing for the sorting of votes by the Elections Commission;

- (b) in subsection (4) by providing for the sorting of votes;
- (c) by substituting for subsection (5) a new subsection providing for the transmission of sealed envelopes containing cast ballots to the respective returning officers for each local authority area;
- (d) by the insertion of new subsections (6), (7) and (8): subsection (6) gives the polling agents the power to verify ballots; subsection (7) provides that ballots cast are deemed to have been cast where the relevant ballot places are situated; subsection (8) provides that the votes cast will be counted by the presiding officer in each local authority area;

Clause 25 amends section 95 of the Act substituting for presiding officer the returning officer with power to effect recounts.

Clause 26 amends section 101 of the Act providing that as soon as practicable but later than fifteen days the returning officer shall publicly declare the results of the elections.
